Wagner, 2024-07-15 Orthodox Sisters explores the relationship between women religion and social cultural and economic change between 1700 and 1935 through the experiences of Orthodox convents in Nizhnii Novgorod diocese Focusing primarily on the Convent of the Exaltation of the Cross William G Wagner places the women s experiences in the broader context of developments in female monasticism and religious life in Russia as well as in Europe and North America over the same period This is the first comprehensive study that follows a Russian convent through all the stages of its life from its origins in the eighteenth century to its flourishing at the turn of the twentieth century to its resistance to Soviet assault and finally to its rebirth in the 1920s By the late nineteenth century the Convent of the Exaltation of the Cross and the other convents and women s religious communities in Nizhnii Novgorod diocese constituted a reimagined form of a traditional Orthodox monastic community Wagner shows how these nuns and novices adapted to the conditions of emergent modernity in a distinctively Orthodox way When almost everything but their communal life work and worship and their sacred spaces had been stripped away and they were subject to the socialist state s efforts at subversion the sisters of the Convent of the Exaltation of the Cross and the other convents in the diocese created an authentic Christian community that gave their lives a collective meaning In this way they were able to lead a rewarding life and survive the early years of Soviet Russia      The Evolution of a Vow Judith Schaefer, 2009 For centuries the vow of obedience has been at the heart of religious life With the renewal efforts of Vatican II the vow has been dramatically restructured but not theologically re envisioned The Evolution of a Vow Obedience as Decision Making in Communion addresses the changes in the vow and proposes a renewed theology that supports the living out of obedience in the twenty first century Obedience in communion as a theological proposal invites vowed religious to create a pattern of limitless listening that everywhere seeks the call of God to communion Against the
