Shaquille O'Neal Larger Than Life:

Billboard, 1995-01-07 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Black Planet David Shields, 2025-09 First published in 1994 Black Planet is at first glance a reporting of David Shields's journey following his hometown Seattle Supersonics through the 1994-95 NBA season He went to the team's home games watched their away games on TV listened to interviews and call in shows talked or tried to talk to players coaches and agents attended charity events corresponded with members of the Sonics newsgroup on the early internet He kept a daily journal which then transformed into an intensely personal diary about that season and the team and notions about race and sport in America He started to see a barely concealed view about black men in the NBA and how in a predominately black sport white fans including especially himself think about and talk about black athletes and black bodies And Shields was writing more like a twenty-first century sportswriter and critiquing local sports media in an era when it was rarely if ever questioned Critically acclaimed and highly controversial Black Planet was finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award and PEN USA Award and it was named on the Top Ten Nonfiction Books of 1999 by Esquire Newsday and LA Weekly The Good, the Bad, & the Ugly: Los Angeles Lakers Steven Travers, Art Spander, 2007-08-01 Capturing the best and the worst moments in the history of some of America's favorite teams this entertaining and informative series for sports fans includes information on the best and worst teams and players of all times the greatest and worst moments in franchise history dramatic comebacks and blown leads overrated and underrated players and coaches and more all complemented by archival photographs Shaq Peter C.
