Sharks And People:

Sharks and People Lynn M. Stone, 1996 Briefly describes how people fish for sharks photograph and study them use them for food or other products and the dangers humans face from sharks and vice versa Shark People A. A. Jameson, 2010-10-07 Stanley Blackster had once been a hero to his son Gram back in the days when he right as usual he d let things drift But now Insidiator was to be screened again and he would take decisive action A family expedition to the fabled paradise islands of the Papalinas would surely put things right The Barracuda had long wanted to visit this place from his past and he would at last dive on a coral reef with Gram Certain firmly submerged incidents were becoming restless but the Blacksters would not be straying from the sun the sand and the surf Tsaramaso Atoll would be at a safe range of several hundred sea miles and Stanley would make sure it stayed that way Of course he would Even now Tsaramaso was a place undiscovered by the world a place of mangrove forest and steaming heat of reptiles and sharks of teeming reef fishes and sweating black nights ancestral home of the malevolent Boniface clan and their old eerie notions of power The very last place for a family holiday Sharks and People Thomas P. Peschak, 2014-02-27 At once feared and revered sharks have captivated people since our earliest human encounters Children and adults alike stand awed before aquarium shark tanks fascinated by the giant teeth and unnerving eyes And no swim in the ocean is undertaken without a slight shiver of anxiety about the very real and very cinematic dangers of shark bites But our interactions with sharks are not entirely one sided the threats we pose to sharks through fisheries organized hunts and gill nets on coastlines are more deadly and far reaching than any bite In Sharks and People acclaimed wildlife photographer Thomas Peschak presents stunning photographs that capture the relationship between people and sharks around the globe A contributing photographer to National Geographic Peschak is best known for his unusual photographs of sharks his iconic image of a great white shark following a researcher in a small yellow kayak is one of the most recognizable shark photographs in the world The other images gathered here are no less riveting bringing us as close as possible to sharks in the wild Alongside the photographs Sharks and People tells the compelling story of the natural history of sharks Sharks have roamed the oceans for more than four hundred million years and in this time they have never stopped adapting to the ever changing world their unique cartilage skeletons and array of super senses mark them as one of the most evolved groups of animals Scientists have recently discovered that sharks play an important role in balancing the ocean including maintaining the health of coral reefs Yet tens of millions of sharks are killed every year just to fill the demand for shark fin soup alone Today more than sixty species of sharks including hammerhead mako and oceanic white tip sharks are listed as vulnerable or in danger of extinction The need to understand the significant part sharks play in the oceanic ecosystem has never been so urgent and Peschak s photographs bear witness to the thrilling strength and unique attraction of sharks They are certain to enthrall and inspire Great White Sharks Kathleen W. Deady, 2001 Describes great white sharks their habits where they live their hunting methods and how they exist in the world of people Shark Richard Ellis,2012-04-17 The sharks ancient or modern real or imaginary have always been with us and will probably remain with us forever They appear not only in movies and literature but in countless permutations of size shape and materials permeating our daily lives with their silent menace In a sense humans live in a world replete with sharks not vice versa Thus Richard Ellis sets about chronicling and debunking the myths of sharks throughout history From 18th century art to the phenomena of JAWS the shark has remained the indomitable aggressor of the deep the last demon of humankind The image of the shark and the fear it inspires infiltrates our daily lives with its mythical power and strength But it is not man who should fear the shark Our need to dominate these predators is destroying them and their habitat Through hundreds of full color images Ellis proves the necessity of preserving these majestic creatures As curator of the Ft Lauderdale Museum of Art s exhibition entitled Shark debuting May 2012 Ellis adeptly turns these sleek efficient hunters from monsters of the deep into rare beautiful forces of nature Sharks and People Annabel Griffin,2023-09 Fearful foes or fantastic fish Uncover the truth about sharks and discover the dangers threatening their survival Meet the world s most endangered sharks and learn how to help save them Sharks Niki Walker,Bobbie Kalman,1997 Sharks describes these fascinating creatures from the fearsome great white to the gentle whale shark Shark anatomy behavior and babies are explained alongside thrilling color photographs Chambers's information for the people, ed. by W. and R. Shark Mark Carwardine,2004 Sharks in one form or another have inhabited our seas and oceans for more than 400 million years They were here long before the dinosaurs and they witnessed the rise of our own species Awe inspiring beautiful mysterious frightening sharks have been described in many ways and provoke a mixture of feelings But they never do less than excite and impress story of these wonderful creatures from their early beginnings to their struggle for survival today He describes their origins and ancestors introduces the diversity of sharks marvels at their perfectly designed bodies explains how they reproduce investigates their reputation as the ultimate killing machines and finds out how these little known animals are being studied He even reveals how and where to jump into the sea for a real life close encounter with a wild shark Of course the fearsome reputation of sharks travels before them But how much truth is there in the fishermen s tales that have circulated for centuries Mark puts our irrational fears into perspective by presenting the facts and exploding the fallacies Far from being killing machines with a taste for human flesh most sharks are quite nervous of people There
