She Who Changes Reimagining The Divine In The World:

She Who Changes C. Christ, 2016-04-15 Can we re imagine divine power as deeply related to the changing world Can we re imagine the creation of the world as an ongoing process of co creation in which every individual from particles of atoms to human beings plays a part Can we re imagine Goddess God as the most relational of all relational beings Can we re imagine the world as the body of Goddess God If we can then we can understand the deeper meaning of female images of divine power including Goddess God She Sophia and Shekhina Many traditional understandings of divine power begin with thinly disguised rejections of the female body and connection to the natural world Women theologians from Jewish Christian Goddess and other traditions are re imagining divine and human power as embodied embedded in a changing world and deeply related to all beings in the web of life Drawing on the work of process philosopher Charles Hartshorne whose insights deserve a wider hearing Carol P Christ offers intellectual foundations for deeply held feelings about the meanings of female images of divine power Her gift is the ability to make complex ideas seem simple and radically new ideas seem familiar This book is addressed to everyone who has ever wondered about the implications of re imagining God as female

Encyclopedia of Gender and Society Jodi O'Brien, 2009 Provides timely comparative analysis from internationally known contributors Encyclopedia of Women in World Religions Susan de-Gaia, 2018-11-16 This reference offers reliable knowledge about women's diverse faith practices throughout history and prehistory and across cultures Across the span of human history women have participated in world building and life sustaining cultural creativity making enormous contributions to religion and spirituality In the contemporary period women have achieved greater equality with more educational opportunities female role models in public life and opportunities for religious expression than ever before Contemporaneously with this increased visibility women are actively and energetically engaging with religion for themselves and for their communities Drawing on the expertise of a range of scholars this reference chronicles the religious experiences of women across time and cultures The book includes sections on major religions as well as on spirituality African religions prehistoric religions and other broad topics Each section begins with an introduction followed by reference entries on specialized subjects along with excerpts from primary source documents The entries provide numerous suggestions for further reading and the book closes with a detailed bibliography Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher Literatur, 2004 Concilium, 2006 Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion, 2006 Cahiers de la Femme, 2004 Choice, 2004 Women in the Arts Barbara Harbach, Diane H. Touliatos-Miles, 2010 Women In The Arts is a multi disciplined celebration of past and present women creators It marks a new departure in women's studies for it presents an interdisciplinary emphasis on the long neglected area of women's contributions to the various genres of the arts Feminist Periodicals, 2005 Global Perspectives on Motherhood, Mothering and Masculinities Andrea Moraes, Tola Olu Pearce, 2021-06-01 The two phenomena highlighted in this edited volume motherhood mothering and masculinities are each recent areas of development in critical Feminist and Men's Studies In contributing to these areas of gender studies this book draws attention to the fact that much can also be gained when we explore relationships between them an idea that may not readily come to mind While femininities and masculinities are co constructed motherhood and mothering bring additional perspectives to the study of femininity that affect the construction of masculinity in complex ways The 12 chapters in this volume allow readers to ponder some of these complexities and may suggest other issues that require investigation Spanning many continents the essays have both a global and historical reach emphasising cultural differences and historical changes Of import is the idea that mothers have agency and are active in constructions affecting their lives They are able to bring motherhood out of the shadows as they strive to build re evaluate or alter their roles within families and communities These have an impact on developments in masculinities The book is divided into three parts and the chapters investigate a wide range of issues including cultural constructs gender in parent child relationships non binary developments the impact of war on mothering decolonisation struggles and much more
