Ciaran Carson Neal Alexander, 2010-01-01 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org Ciaran Carson is one of the most challenging and inventive of contemporary Irish writers exhibiting verbal brilliance formal complexity and intellectual daring across a remarkably varied body of work This study considers the full range of his oeuvre in poetry prose and translations and discusses the major themes to which he returns including memory and history narrative language and translation mapping violence and power It argues that the singularity of Carson's writing is to be found in his radical imaginative engagements with ideas of space and place The city of Belfast in particular occupies a crucially important place in his texts serving as an imaginative focal point around which his many other concerns are constellated The city in all its volatile mutability is an abiding frame of reference and a reservoir of creative impetus for Carson's imagination Accordingly the book adopts an interdisciplinary approach that draws upon geography urbanism and cultural theory as well as literary criticism It provides both a stimulating and thorough introduction to Carson's work and a flexible critical framework for exploring literary representations of space A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction James F. English, 2008-04-15 A Concise Companion to Contemporary British Fiction offers an authoritative overview of contemporary British fiction in its social political and economic contexts Focuses on the fiction that has emerged since the late 1970s roughly since the start of the Thatcher era Comprises original essays from major scholars Topics range from the rise and fall of the postcolonial novel to controversies over the celebrity author The emphasis is on the whole fiction scene from bookstores and prizes to the changing economics of film adaptation Enables students to read contemporary works of British fiction with a much clearer sense of where they fit within British cultural life Slanguage Bernard Share, 2005 Are you a holy terror Are you a go boy Could you live on the skin of a rasher Or are you so hungry that you eat a farmer's arse through a hedge When you're on the razz do you get so buckled crippled and scuttered that you can't get your back outta the scratcher in the morning Never mind the answers if you understand the questions you are in Slanguage country If you don't you need to be This is the dictionary that glosses the words that real Irish people use in the streets each day every day Slang is elusive Some words and phrases are always there Others slip in and out of usage according to the whims of fashion This expanded edition of the standard dictionary of Irish slang includes many entries not in the 1997 edition It has dropped a few that have fallen out of favour and has revised others In all this edition is 25 per cent longer than its predecessor It will confirm Bernard Share's invaluable book in its position as the major work of its kind combining scholarship and a keen sense of fun Slanguage does justice to it by taking it seriously but not too seriously St. Patrick's Day Delights Cookbook Karen Jean Matsko Hood, 2014-01-01 You will enjoy the folklore poetry stories and creative recipes in this cookbook written by cook author and poet Karen Jean Matsko Hood It is packed full of unique recipes that are fun and healthy to help you celebrate this holiday Your family and friends will delight in helping to prepare these delicious
