The Oxford Handbook of Deification Paul L. Gavriluk, Andrew P. Hofer, Matthew Levering, 2024-06-03 Modern theological engagements on deification have undergone two major paradigm shifts First the study of deification shifted from the periphery of theological discourse to its center For Adolf von Harnack deification was a pagan import that fatally corrupted and distorted the Gospel message of salvation In response the positive retrieval of the concept of deification belongs to the early years of the twentieth century By the 1910s in Russian religious thought and by the 1930s in much Roman Catholic theology deification had become a magnet concept attracting attention from many different viewpoints The second important shift relates to how deification is characterized Recent studies question the exclusively Eastern character of deification and draw attention to the engagements of this theme in Latin patristic and later Western Christian sources Reassessing the evidence for these two major shifts The Oxford Handbook of Deification comprehensively explores the points of convergence and difference on the constitutive elements of deification in different traditions and offers a foundation for ecumenical and interreligious dialogues The Handbook s first part analyzes the cultural and scriptural roots of deification the second part explores the most significant historical contributions to the understanding of deification in the early medieval and modern periods the third part develops systematic connections Readers will discover a surprising breadth depth and diversity of theologies of deification in Christian traditions Throughout the Handbook leading scholars in the field of Deification Studies propose vital new insights from a variety of perspectives for this central mystery at the heart of the Christian faith

Bonhoeffer's Christocentric Theology and Fundamental Debates in Environmental Ethics Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2017-05-04 There is widespread understanding of the close connection between religion and the ecological crisis and that in order to amend this crisis theological resources are needed This monograph seeks to contribute to this endeavor by engaging the theology of Dietrich Bonhoeffer His theology is particularly suitable in this context due to its open ended nature and to the prophetic and radical nature of the questions he was prepared to ask that is why there are many other attempts to contextualize Bonhoeffer's theology in areas that he himself has not directly written about. In this monograph Steven van den Heuvel first of all addresses the question of how to translate Bonhoeffer's theology in a methodologically sound way. He settles on a modified form of the general method of correlation. Then secondly van den Heuvel sets out to describe five major concepts in Bonhoeffer's work bringing these into critical interplay with discussions in environmental ethics and eco-theology. In making the correlations he thoroughly describes each concept situating it in the historic and intellectual background of Bonhoeffer's time. He then transposes these concepts to contemporary environmental ethics describing what contribution Bonhoeffer's theology can make.

Old Catholic Theology Peter-Ben Smit, 2019-10-29
 Old Catholic theology is the theology that is characteristic of the Old Catholic Churches of the Union of Utrecht. Old Catholic Theology: An Introduction authored by Peter Ben Smit, an acknowledged expert in the field, outlines the main characteristics of and influences on Old Catholic theology as well as the extant ecumenical relationships of the Old Catholic Churches. In doing so it covers what may be called mainstream Old Catholic theology while also discussing the diversity within the Old Catholic tradition. Particular attention is given to the Old Catholic approach to theology in general and to ecclesiology, sacramental theology and ecumenical theology in particular. Further foci include the version of communio theology, the appertaining sacramental understanding of the church, the inherent connection between theology and liturgical spirituality, the distinct branch of communal hermeneutics and the understanding of the appeal to the early Church that Old Catholic theologians developed in the course of the 20th century.

Images of Redemption Patrick Sherry, 2003
 After discussing the arts of redemption and their rivals and introducing soteriology, the theology of salvation, Patrick Sherry argues that the Christian Drama of Redemption has three Acts. The next five chapters discuss the three Acts: namely salvation history, our present human life and the life to come. In each case Sherry explains how art and literature can lead to an understanding of what is at stake here. His main concern is with the present life; hence three of those chapters deal with that phase of redemption, one of them specifically with novels of redemption. The last substantial chapter of the book takes up the general issue of how art and literature contribute to religious understanding. Sherry argues that they may be primary expressions of religious belief as well as illustrations and that as such they may criticise or complement theology or in turn be open to criticism themselves from that quarter. Finally he summarises the main theme and briefly discusses some of the particular problems of assessing the arts of redemption. The book's most distinctive feature is the way in which it uses art and literature as a means of religious and theological understanding. It is not a survey of the arts of redemption though it uses a wide variety of examples including ancient Greek drama, Flemish and Italian painting, religious music and 19th-20th century novels. These examples are used as a tool for understanding what is one of the most difficult areas of theology.

Words in Action Richard Briggs, 2001
 Richard Briggs first provides an introduction to speech act theory. He discusses its principles and its claims and he considers its usefulness in relation to hermeneutical issues in theological and biblical studies. The second part of the book demonstrates the use of speech act theory in the task of biblical interpretation especially for example in the areas of confession of forgiveness and of teaching In his conclusion the author draws out the importance of speech act theory for contemporary hermeneutics God in Christian Perspective G. M. Newlands,1994 Redeemer, Friend and Mother Josephine Massyngherde Ford,1997 How wide a range of ideas was used by early Christians to proclaim redemption through Jesus Christ What did the followers of Jesus do about concepts of shame death suffering forgiveness and friendship And how did their beliefs relate to the lives and thoughts of actual persons in the Graeco Roman world including women Author J Massynghaerde Ford opens a new vista on the ancient world of Bible times Epworth Review ,1992 Violence, Hospitality, and the Cross Hans Boersma,2004 Offers a new model for understanding the atonement sensitive to both the Chrisitan tradition and its postmodern critics
