Sharing One Hope:

After the Evil Richard Harries, 2003-07-03 The evil of the holocaust demands a radical rethink of the traditional Christian understanding of Judaism This does not mean jettisoning Christianity's deepest convictions in order to make it conform to Judaism Rather Richard Harries develops the work of recent Jewish scholarship to discern resonances between central Christian and Jewish beliefs This thought provoking book offers fresh approaches to contentious and sensitive issues A key chapter on the nature of forgiveness is sympathetic to the Jewish charge that Christians talk much too easily about forgiveness Another chapter on suffering in Judaism and Christianity rejects the usual stereotypes and argues for important common ground for example in the idea that God suffers in the suffering of his people There are also chapters on the state of Israel and the place of Jerusalem in Christian and Jewish thought Richard Harries argues that the basic covenant is not with either Judaism or Christianity but with humanity These like other religions are different distinctive voices in response to God's primal affirmation of human life which for Christians is achieved and given in the life death and resurrection of Jesus Christ In the light of this the author maintains controversially that Christians should not be trying to convert Jews to Christianity Rather Jews and Christians should stand together and build on the great amount they have in common to work together for a better world

Reflections On How We Live Annette Baier, 2010-01-28 The rights of past and future persons For the sake of future generations Discriminate death dealing who may kill whom and how Can philosophers be patriots Why honesty is a hard virtue postscript Getting in touch with our own feelings How to get to know one's own mind some simple ways The moral perils of intimacy Feelings that matter Demoralization trust and the virtues Sympathy and self trust Putting hope in its place How to lose friends some simple ways Alienating affection Faces and other body parts Other minds jottings towards an intellectual self image

Nostra Aetate, Non-Christian Religions, and Interfaith Relations Kail C. Ellis, 2020-10-01 This book explores how Nostra Aetate the Declaration on the Relation of the Church with Non Christian Religions of the Second Vatican Council can influence inter religious dialogue and understanding in the modern world Although influential in religious academic and scholarly circles it is relatively unknown outside these areas The contributors remedy that deficit by highlighting the declaration's difficult historical and social context and the Church's evolving relationship with non Christians Contentious topics are examined such as the link between the Jewish people and the land and state of Israel that questions the Catholic understanding of the relativity of national borders and identity and the challenges posed to the Church's relationship with Islam by its prioritization of human rights and religious freedom for Christians and minorities in certain Muslim regimes Given its scope it is an ideal resource for graduate students and researchers in the fields of political science international relations religion and minority studies Methods of Industrial Remuneration David Frederick Schloss,1892 Perspectives of Jesus in the Writings of Paul Gerry Schoberg,2014-02-27 The critical question of the relationship between Jesus and Paul has been well established in New Testament studies for over 150 years and it needs to be addressed with all the tools of historical criticism that scholarship has developed So states GerrySchoberg at the beginning of this new and important work that does just that By coupling comparative instances in the gospels and the works attributed to Paul Schoberg invites the reader to enquire more profoundly than in past studies as to the nature of the relationship between Jesus and the most dramatic of Christian converts At the heart of this study is not only the question of whether the New Testament truly gives a unified vision of the Christian movement but also how the early followers of Jesus felt able to draw such insightful conclusions about him Answering such questions through the study of Jesus and Paul offer an insight as to how one is to make theological sense of the many details experienced from day to day and thereby live a life inChrist Lessons on Early Church History Deborah Alcock,1879 Celebrated Crimes Alexandre Dumas,1895 Poems Mrs. Hemans,1885 Building Your Mate's Self Esteem Dennis Rainey,2000-11 The Family Churchman ,1882-11 Poems ...
