Faith, Family, and Filipino American Community Life Stephen M. Cherry,2014-01-03 Stephen M Cherry draws upon a rich set of ethnographic and survey data collected over a six year period to explore the roles that Catholicism and family play in shaping Filipino American community life From the planning and construction of community centers to volunteering at health fairs or protesting against abortion this book illustrates the powerful ways these forces structure and animate not only how first generation Filipino Americans think and feel about their community but how they are compelled to engage it over issues deemed important to the sanctity of the family Revealing more than intimate accounts of Filipino American lives Cherry offers a glimpse of the often hidden but vital relationship between religion and community in the lives of new immigrants and allows speculation on the broader impact of Filipino immigration on the nation The Filipino American community is the second largest immigrant community in the United States and the Philippines is the second largest source of Catholic immigration to this country This ground breaking study outlines how first generation Filipino Americans have the potential to reshape American Catholicism and are already having an impact on American civic life through the engagement of their faith

Online Small Groups as Sites of Teaching Simon Hallonsten,2024-04-25 Centered around a reflective narrative recounting the experiences of a participatory action research project into leading online small groups for adults in the Church of Sweden Diocese of Stockholm during 2021 and 2022 the dissertation argues for the need to reconceptualize and reemphasize teaching as an important aspect in Christian religious education Employing creative non fiction methods the dissertation aims to broaden the scope of the initial Online Small Groups project by inviting readers to join into a learning journey The narrative account is complemented with more traditional forms of analysis that connect experiences from online small groups in the Church of Sweden to similar research from Anglo Saxon countries noting especially how notions of community diverge due to different ecclesiological understandings Insights are then synthesized into eight teaching strategies aimed at communicating actionable knowledge to small group leaders before noting how the study complements research on Christian religious education and particularly the current debate about learning and teaching in the Church of Sweden

The Ethics of Community Frank G. Kirkpatrick,2001-05-25 In this important and timely study Frank Kirkpatrick draws on theology political philosophy and the social sciences more generally to develop a Christian ethic of community

Who Will Provide?

The Changing Role Of Religion In American Social Welfare Mary Jo Bane,2021-11-28 Leading scholars examine how the church community organizations and the government must work together to provide for America s poor in the aftermath of welfare reform Who will provide for Americas children elderly and working families Not since the 1930s has our nation faced such fundamental choices over how to care for all its citizens Now amid economic prosperity Americans are asking what government business and non profit organizations can and can t do and what they should and shouldn t be asked to do As both political parties look to faith based organizations to meet material and spiritual needs the center of this historic debate is the changing role of religion These essays combine a fresh perspective and detailed analysis on these pressing issues They emerge from a three year Harvard Seminar sponsored by the Center for the Study of Values in Public Life that brought together scholars in public policy government religion sociology law education and non profit leadership By putting the present moment in broad historical perspective these essays offer rich insights into the resources of faith based organizations while cautioning against viewing their expanded role as an alternative to the government s responsibility In Who Will Provide community leaders organizational managers public officials and scholars will find careful analysis drawing on a number of fields to aid their work of devising better partnerships of social provision locally and nationally It was named a Choice Outstanding Academic Book of 2001
