Shatterer Of Worlds:

Worlds to Shatter, Shattered Worlds Paul Payack, 2003-07 Worlds to Shatter Shattered Worlds is a classically styled dramatic work often compared to the style and substance of Tom Stoppard's Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead. In Worlds to Shatter you will encounter the all too strange world inhabited by such denizens as Sea faring Time worshippers and the Keeper of the Nothingness. Paul JJ Payack is a Silicon Valley marketing executive by day but by night he constructs the elaborate all too strange worlds such as that found in Worlds to Shatter Shattered Worlds. Over his career as a writer Payack has created hundreds of metafictional works in the various forms of novella, short stories, polyplays, essays, and collage narratives that have been published in some dozen collections and hundreds of reviews and anthologies around the world including The Paris Review, New Letters, Creative Computing, and Boulevard. At the same time Payack has served as a senior executive for some of the world's leading high technology companies. Currently Payack serves as Chairman President The WordMan at yourDictionary.com the leading global language portal. According to Sylvia Berkman, "What continues to even more forcefully distinguish Paul Payack's later work is the nature of the creative intelligence from which it stems. This is an intelligence cool yet engaged, composed, witty, immensely concerned with the broad pivotal elements of the human experience."

The Shatterer of Worlds Ray Cooper, 2000* Reinventing World War II Barbara A. Biesecker, 2024-08-09 By the 1970s World War II had all but disappeared from US popular culture. But beginning in the mid eighties it reemerged with a vengeance and for nearly fifteen years World War II was ubiquitous across US popular and political culture. In this book Barbara A Biesecker explores the prestige and rhetorical power of the Good War, revealing how it was retooled to restore a new kind of social equilibrium to the United States. Biesecker analyzes prominent cases of World War II remembrance including the canceled exhibit of the Enola Gay at the National Air and Space Museum in 1995 and its replacement Steven Spielberg's Saving Private Ryan, Tom Brokaw's The Greatest Generation, and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. Situating these popular memory texts within the culture and history wars of the day and the broader framework of US political and economic life, Biesecker argues that with the notable exception of the Holocaust Memorial Museum, these reinventions of the Good War worked rhetorically to restore a strong sense of national identity and belonging fitted to the neoliberal nationalist agenda. By tracing the links between the popular retooling of World War II and the national state fantasy, and by putting the lessons of Foucault, Derrida, Lacan, and their successors to work for a rhetorical political analysis of the present, Biesecker not only explains the emergence and strength of the MAGA movement but also calls attention to the power of public memory to shape and contest ethnonational identity today. This book will interest rhetoricians and historians as well as students and scholars in the fields of US politics and communication studies. The Woman on the Bridge Over the Chicago River Allen R. Grossman, 1979 The Woman on the Bridge over the Chicago River is Allen Grossman's first collection with New Directions. His voice is astonishingly contemporary, his often dissociated imagery bordering on the surreal yet one hears in his verse classical and Biblical echoes and on occasion darker medieval undertones The brilliance of his imagination works against a measured eloquence setting up a fine edged tension not unlike the prophetic verse of William Blake the wild dithyrambs of David or the more controlled metrics of Catullus and Villon Destroyer of Worlds Larry Niven,Edward M. book is an invitation to breathe deeply and seek out the meaning of what the world heaves at us each day It is an offering of insights that will provide fresh ways of comprehending things readers thought they already understood
