Fast Food Vindication Lisa Tillinger Johansen (MS, RD.), 2012 For years dozens of books documentaries and magazine articles have targeted the fast food industry as the cause for many of society's ills ranging from the obesity epidemic to the proliferation of dead end jobs Now hospital dietitian Lisa Johansen makes the bold case that the fast food industry is actually a positive force in society Johansen takes the reader from the industry's scrappy entrepreneurial beginnings to its emergence as a global business generating hundreds of billions of dollars annually Far from a blight on society the fast food industry has distinguished itself by providing a product that meets high standards of quality and safety often healthier than meals served at home and in sit down restaurants The myth of the McJob is debunked by true life cases of corporate titans who succeeded by virtue of the fast food chains practice of promoting from within And relying on her years of counseling patients at one of the nation's largest health networks Johansen shows the reader just how easily fast food can be incorporated into a healthy lifestyle Lively and informative FAST FOOD VINDICATION destroys the media myths and paints the true picture of an industry that touches the lives of millions

Twenty Thousand Roads Virginia Scharff, 2003 Virginia Scharff's wonderfully readable account of women in motion complicates and enriches our understanding of the nineteenth and twentieth century Wests Her gendered remapping of the regional landscape explodes traditional notions of western movement All students of women and gender travel and place the West and America would do well to read this excellent book David M Wrobel author of Promised Lands Promotion Memory and the Creation of the American West Virginia Scharff claims for women what has long been central to the masculine mythology of the West free movement and its many gifts real and imagined Her book is as exhilarating and as intellectually and emotionally expansive as our enduring dream of flight across the American land Elliott West author of The Contested Plains Indians Goldseekers the Rush to Colorado Brilliant is not a word that is often a part of my critical vocabulary but brilliantly is how Twenty Thousand Roads begins When writing of Sacagawea and Susan Magoffin Virginia Scharff shows vividly how a single life can be a source of sophisticated cultural analysis without becoming an academic artifact or an object of condescension Richard White author of It's Your Misfortune and None of My Own A New History of the American West
