Farrell, 2021-12-23

Problematizing the aims of education in the Anthropocene this text illustrates the value of relational psychoanalytic theory in the study and practice of education amidst the climate crisis Illustrating how dominant educational theory fails to acknowledge climate precarity and the consequences of living beyond the Earth's carrying capacity Ecosophy and Educational Research for the Anthropocene calls for a reorientation of scholarship to decentre the human subject The author discusses the evolution of intersubjective psychoanalysis to make a case for a turn to relational and psychoanalytically informed educational research Chapters foreground areas for educational researchers to consider in pursuing intersubjective inquiries into the affective dimensions of curriculum and pedagogy to foster an emergence of eco attunement and ecosophical educational research EER By framing an ecosophical approach this book enables educational leaders researchers and educators to fulfil their responsibility to engage in educational praxis which is contextually responsive relationally attuned and recognizant that we cannot be studied apart from our connections to the planet Secrets in Psychotherapy Kathryn Zerbe, 2025-04-01 This book brings together contemporary perspectives from psychodynamic treatment advances in cognitive science medicine and neuroscience in a user friendly format guiding practitioners from beginner to more advanced practitioner in working with secrets that emerge during psychotherapy Despite their ubiquity in life and in clinical practice secrets and secret keeping receive limited attention in the training and skill set required for mental health clinicians Drawing on personal experience and clinical expertise as well as film memoir and literature Dr Kathryn Zerbe shares how secrets come to light in both life and treatment demonstrating the powerful hold that secrets can have on our lives This book offers a fresh take on how we view our secrets and how we can use them as a tool to sustain our most intimate and valued connections over the course of a lifetime Using cutting edge research as well as honed clinical expertise the author suggests how one might go about managing the secrets of everyday living that we must keep as well as how we can identify which we can let go Particular attention is paid to the mind body relationship and somatic countertransference reactions Each chapter suggests guidelines to promote wellness and resilience in the secret keeper whether that be the psychotherapist or their patient Written with compassion and in a user friendly style Secrets in Psychotherapy will benefit anyone who is navigating the thorny terrain of keeping a secret for themselves or someone they know It is an essential read for psychotherapists

psychoanalysts and practicing mental health professionals of all disciplines      The Trauma of Gender Helene Moglen, 2001-02-15 Helene Moglen offers a revisionary feminist argument about the origins cultural function and formal structure of the English novel While most critics and historians have associated the novel's emergence and development with the burgeoning of capitalism and the rise of the middle classes Moglen contends that the novel principally came into being in order to manage the social and psychological strains of the modern sex gender system Rejecting the familiar claim that realism represents the novel's dominant tradition she shows that from its inception in the eighteenth century the English novel has contained both realistic and fantastic narratives which compete for primacy within individual texts      Exploring the Affective Dimensions of Educational Leadership Alysha Farrell, 2019-08-22 Bridging the gap between academic parlance and arts based inquiry this unique text presents a socio affective exploration of educational leadership The text challenges inherited ideological and normative assumptions and invites its reader to reimagine leadership as a dynamic emotional and relational process Exploring the Affective Dimensions of Educational Leadership combines the ambiguity of arts based work with the interpretative power of psychoanalysis to illustrate the role of mutuality personal interpretations and formative relations on leadership practices By emphasizing leadership as the constant striving for recognition the chapters expose the affective dimensions that infuse educational leadership practice and in doing so propose a new way for educational leaders to respond to complex and emotionally charged incidents in school contexts thereby promoting democratic practice and positive collegial relations An engaging and insightful text this book will be of great interest to graduate and postgraduate students researchers academics and professionals in the fields of educational leadership educational research and psychoanalysis

Psychoanalytic Approaches to Loss Timothy Keogh, Cynthia Gregory-Roberts, 2018-09-18 Psychoanalytic Approaches to Loss Mourning Melancholia and Couples applies psychoanalytic ideas to the clinically complex issue of loss in couples and families and outlines a new model for the treatment of associated unresolved grief In line with contemporary approaches to couple and family psychoanalysis this integrated object relations and link theory model provides a clear framework and approach for assessing and treating this clinical presentation The book brings together contributions from internationally known and respected clinicians and authors who focus on loss including repeated pregnancy loss the loss of a child or parent and the loss of a relationship itself These psychoanalytic couple therapists take the reader inside their consulting rooms enabling observation of their approaches to the treatment of couples experiencing loss and associated unresolved grief Psychoanalytic Approaches to Loss Mourning Melancholia and Couples will make an important contribution to the literature on grief and mourning and the application of psychoanalytic thinking to couples presenting with difficulties linked to unresolved grief following loss It represents an essential resource to psychotherapists counsellors family therapists mental health professionals and many others supporting those experiencing loss      Transitional Subjects Amy Allen, Brian O'Connor, 2019-08-06 Critical social theory has long been marked by a deep creative and productive relationship with psychoanalysis Whereas Freud and Fromm were important cornerstones for the early Frankfurt School recent thinkers have drawn on the object relations school of psychoanalysis Transitional Subjects is the first book length collection devoted to the engagement of critical theory with the work of Melanie Klein Donald Winnicott and other members of this school Featuring contributions from some of the leading figures working in both of these fields including Axel Honneth Joel Whitebook No lle McAfee Sara Beardsworth and C Fred Alford it provides a synoptic overview of current research at the intersection of these two theoretical traditions while also opening up space for further innovations Transitional Subjects offers a range of perspectives on the critical potential of object relations psychoanalysis including feminist and Marxist views to offer valuable insight into such fraught social issues as aggression narcissism progress and torture The productive dialogue that emerges augments our understanding of the self as intersubjectively and socially constituted and of contemporary social pathologies Transitional Subjects shows how critical theory and object relations psychoanalysis considered together have not only enriched critical theory but also invigorated psychoanalysis Contemporary Irish Novel 1987 - 2007 Liam Harte, 2013-11-07 Reading the Contemporary Irish Novel 1987 2007 is the authoritative guide to some of the most inventive and challenging fiction to emerge from Ireland in the last 25 years. Meticulously researched it presents detailed interpretations of novels by some of Ireland's most eminent writers. This is the first text focused critical survey of the Irish novel from 1987 to 2007 providing detailed readings of 11 seminal Irish novels. A timely and much needed text in a largely uncharted critical field. Provides detailed interpretations of individual novels by some of the country's most critically celebrated writers including Sebastian Barry Roddy Doyle Anne Enright Patrick McCabe John McGahern Edna O'Brien and Colm Tóibín. Investigates the ways in which Irish novels have sought to deal with and reflect a changing Ireland. The fruit of many years reading teaching and research on the subject by a leading and highly respected academic in the field.

Psychoanalysis and History, 1998 Memory, Narrative, Identity Nicola King, 2000 This book explores the complex relationships that exist between memory nostalgia writing and identity.

The Poetics of Memory in Early Modern England Amanda L. Watson, 2003 Social Text, 2005 Narrating Our Healing C. N. Van der Merwe, Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, 2008 Although written from within a South African context this book has a much wider relevance. It offers illuminating perspectives on the process of narrating our healing the sharing of personal narratives the appropriation of literary narratives and above all the re-creating of life narratives shattered by trauma.

Situated Testimonies Laurie J. Sears, 2013-06-30 This book combines the methodologies of history and literary criticism reading colonial and post colonial novels of the Indies and Indonesia as situated testimonies of the past showing how they can illuminate nationalist narratives and imperial histories.

The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute, 2002 Articles on all aspects of anthropology.

Romanticism and Parenting Carolyn A. Weber, Carolyn Weber, 2007 If the child is the father of the man as William Wordsworth so famously declared then what of the father that child grows to become? How does a daughter born of her mother's death as in the case of Mary Shelley navigate the politics of production and reproduction within a loaded language of mythological allusion between generational authorships? How do the visual arts perpetuate or challenge cultural agendas such as portraying patriarchal anxieties about the effeminization of homeland by the foreign other or attempting iconically to save the soul of a nation? How do parents both encode and decode our world? With the rise of the cult of the child in the later 18th and 19th centuries Romantic writers of Britain and Europe and eventually of North America were perfectly positioned to explore by extension what it meant to parent whether it be in within the domestic or the political sphere. The essays in Romanticism and Parenting: Image, Instruction and Ideology offer a fresh timely and cutting edge contribution to the field of Romantic studies. The collection has its roots in conference proceedings from the 2005 Romanticism and Parenting Conference held at Seattle University in Seattle Washington. Essays acknowledge traditional discussions of such quintessentially Romantic themes as the child education and familial politics while building upon contemporary innovative arguments within the contexts of Romanticism. As a result chapters in the collection range from examining didactic children's literature to complicating constructions of the family politic at personal communal and nationalistic levels While challenging and deepening an understanding of Romantic studies the collection also points to current dynamic issues such as the burgeoning discussion of the experience that actual parents face in academia Consequently the collection reveals how the Romantic period has come to profoundly influence our own current constructions of the politics of parenting
