Planting Growing Churches in the 21st Century G. Vincient Dudley, 2000

Planting Churches in the 21st Century Stuart Murray, 2010-03-04 What does church planting look like in the 21st century Is the goal to plant more churches or is it to plant new kinds of churches In Planting Churches in the 21st Century Stuart Murray suggests that church planting isn't just about numbers it's about the renewal of the church and the development of new ways of being the church that are biblically rooted and contextually appropriate With his gift for posing thought provoking questions while writing in a clear logical style Murray provides stimulation and challenge to anyone who wants to see new churches come into being But don't look here for stereotypes and ready made blueprints Murray's approach is open ended and leaves ample room for personal reflection and creative responses Most of the literature on church planting in North America assumes that the Christendom come to us model still works That is true for a rapidly declining segment of the population and fails to reach the growing ranks of the never churchd Stuart Murray has provided a much needed contribution to the study and practice of church planting by addressing the basic questions Why plant Churches Where When What Who and What Next In addressing each of these fundamental questions he both surveys a wide terrain and digs deeply drawing from his long experience with a wide variety of traditions He also writes as a practitioner and not just a theoretician This is not a step by step how to book that you can read and set aside but a reference book that church planters will want to turn to on a regular basis Eddie Gibbs professor of Church Growth at Fuller Theological Seminary and co author of Emerging Churches Creating Christian Community in Postmodern Cultures Murray provides the scaffolding church leaders need to extend an effective and incarnational witness to the reign of God This book is a must read for all students and practitioners of church planting Missional leaders who long to see the church become a nesting place for all will find good guidance for aligning the work of the church with the inbreaking of God's kingdom David Boshart lead pastor at West Union Mennonite Church and mission strategist Click here to read a press release about the book Click here to read an interview with author Stuart Murray Click here to read the foreword by Rev Anne Wilkinson Hayes North West

Easum, Bill Easum, Pete Theodore, 2005 A guide to the opportunities and challenges facing churches that do not own their property and what established churches can learn from them Across the country churches are forgoing purchase of land and construction of buildings choosing instead to rent space and allocate their resources to mission and leadership development These churches are faced with a number of challenges such as putting up and tearing down equipment every time they meet getting the word out especially to visitors on where the church will gather any given week and negotiating for additional space However being nomadic provides the church with many important opportunities including that it allows time to build the church as a community before building it with brick and mortar it builds serious disciples by calling on members to sacrifice and it frees funds to be used on mission rather than mortgages Writing for the leaders of portable congregations well as those of more established churches who want to learn from such churches Easum and Theodore have provided the definitive guide to ministry in the nomadic church Bill Easum is a President and Senior Managing Partner in Easum Bandy and Associates a church consulting and nurturing firm One of the most widely sought advisors on congregational health and vitality in North America he has over 30 years of congregational experience with approximately 25 years experience as pastor One of the most respected voices on emerging forms of ministry and congregational life he is the author of several books including Unfreezing Moves and Put on Your Own Oxygen Mask First both published by Abingdon Press Pete Theodore is Pastor of Teaching at Rolling Hills Community Church in Tualatin Oregon
