Planning And Power In Iran Ebtehaj And Economic Development Under The Shah:

Planning and Power in Iran Geoffrey Jones, 1989 Planning and Power in Iran Frances Bostock, Geoffrey Jones, 1989
First Published in 1989 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Developing Iran Hamidreza Mahboubi Soufiani, 2023-10-20 This book examines the emergence of modern company towns in Iran by delineating the architectural political and industrial histories of three distinct resource based company town projects built in association with the Big Three powers of World War II The book s narrative builds upon a tripartite research design that chronologically traces the formation and development of the oil steel and copper industries respectively favoured by Great Britain the Soviet Union and the United States in this part of the world By applying three sets of comparative studies the book provides critical vantage points to three different ideological design paradigms postcolonial regionalism socialist universalism and rationalist modern nation building From a global political context the book contributes to the disclosure of new information about the geopolitical confrontation of these three nations in the Global South to increase their sphere of influence after the Second World War Furthermore it demonstrates how postwar architectural modernism was adopted by each power and adapted to their ideological mind frame to fulfil distinct social cultural political and economic targets This book examines multiple interconnections between architecture politics and industrial development by adopting a transdisciplinary approach based on comprehensive fieldwork site surveys and the analysis of original multilingual documents As such it will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture history international relations and Middle Eastern studies The Shah's Imperial Celebrations of 1971 Robert Steele, 2020-10-15 In October 1971 Mohammad Reza Pahlavi Shah of Iran held a celebration to commemorate the 2500th anniversary of the founding of the Persian Empire by Cyrus the Great Dozens of heads of state descended on Persepolis for these Celebrations where they were regaled to sumptuous banquets and entertainment Critical journalists in Western Europe and North America lambasted the Shah for holding such a decadent event while many of his people lived in poverty Due to the overwhelmingly negative press at the time the event is still today widely remembered as a catastrophic failure It is even said by many to have sparked the unrest that eventually led to the revolution and the Shah s downfall in 1979 In this first comprehensive academic study of the 2500th Anniversary Celebrations Robert Steele looks beyond the pomp and splendour to examine the events origins the goals the organisers set out to achieve with them and the extent to which these goals were accomplished The book seeks to place the Celebrations in the context of the Shah s rise rather than his fall uncovering the unparalleled international cultural and scholarly operation that was spurred by the Iranian regime for the occasion exploring the effects the event had on Iran s tourism industry and questioning narratives of the event s cost Africa, Asia, and South America Since 1800 A. J. H. Latham, 1995 A reference for graduate and undergraduate students presenting the bibliographic details and sometimes describing and evaluating the content of over 5 000 books in English most published since 1945 and many quite recently but also some earlier works of enduring importance A section of works on all three continents is followed by sections on each which first consider the continent as a whole then each country usually by chronological periods and topics such as economics politics and society Indexed only by author and editor but the table of contents is detailed enough to provide adequate access Distributed in the US by St Martin s Press Annotation copyright Book News Inc Portland Or The Economic Modernisation of Iran, 1953-1968 Ali Rahnema,2025-11-20 In 1953 Iran was at loggerheads with the US and UK after Prime Minister Mossadeq nationalised Iran s oil reserves By 1968 under the autocratic rule of the Shah Iran was a booming export economy benefiting from high oil prices and consumer demand It had unambiguously become a modern industrial economy Sifting through primary and secondary sources Ali Rahnema charts Iran s progress in this vital fifteen year period He asks who can claim the credit And who bears the blame for its critical failures Modern Iran Since 1921 Ali M. Ansari,2003 This is fundamentally a book about change and the politics of managing that change as successive governments and political elites sought and continue to seek to navigate a stable and sustainable route from a perception of tradition to a particular conception of modernity introd Tehran Ali Madanipour,1998-09-16 This is the first book dedicated to the city of Tehran Once held to be one of the capitals of the luxurious Orient the home of the Peacock Throne the city is now a giant metropolis with great influence across the Muslim world Tehran s two revolutions have not only shaken the city but have drawn the fault lines between East and West Tehran traces the capital s social and physical transformation over the last two centuries from the Persian empire to the Islamic Republic from a small town at the centre of a loose collection of provinces to a node in the global economy from a city dominated by the shah s citadel overlooking a maze of winding streets to an open but polarized matrix of people and places changes which characterize the tensions of globalization and modernity To the West Tehran remains a hidden city structured by an alien political and religious ideology The author s first hand experience of both Iranian culture and of the city of Tehran itself allows him to explore the subtleties of this urban environment with a fine grained insight Tehran will become an indispensable guide to any interested in the fabric and history of this city one of the few world cities which has shaped the course of the Twentieth Century Oil, Power, and Principle Mostafa Elm,1992 This work deals with the oil crises of the 1950s precipitated by Iran s decision to nationalise the Anglo Iranian Oil Company The roots of the revolt against British imperialism are explored here along with the long term consequences of instability in the Middle East Bibliographie der Wirtschaftswissenschaften ,1990 The Soviet Socialist Republic of Iran, 1920-1921 Cosroe Chaquèri,1995 The story of the Jangalis noncommunist revolutionaries who battled tsarist and British occupation forces in their homeland between 1915 and 1921 is critical to an understanding of twentieth century Iran Yet their struggle commanded by the legendary Kuchek Khan has been neglected often deliberately falsified The Pahlavi regime imposed a curtain of silence Soviet historians attacked the movement s noncommunist leaders and the British generally have accepted the Soviet interpretation Now Cosroe Chaqueri brings fresh evidence based on recently available documents from secret

Soviet archives that sheds dramatic new light on a brief but decisive moment in modern Iranian history In reconstructing the record of the guerrilla movement that with Soviet Russia's help led to the establishment of the first Soviet Socialist Republic in the East Chaqueri discredits the false versions of that episode and examines the internal and neocolonial external forces that precipitated its downfall He blames foreign intervention but also locates the roots of Iran's failure to achieve independence in the socioeconomic and mental structures that have controlled the actions of Iranian leaders from ancient times until today's neo-Islamic regime
