Pulling Faces For A Living:

Pulling Faces for a Living James Dale, 1970-01-01 My Dad, The Guv'nor - The True Story of My Life with the Legendary Hard Man, Lenny McLean Kelly McLean, 2018-07-12 I am the Guv nor's daughter but what does that mean Lenny McLean better known as The Guv nor was a legendary and sometimes terrifying figure a bare knuckle fighter bouncer and in later life an actor He was a formidable force in the East End and across London but behind his towering demeanour was a loving father who provided a safe haven for his children For his only daughter Kelly his status brought with it a reputation both to live up to and sometimes escape Kelly experienced the old East End way of life often lived just outside the law first hand and equally the uncertainty that came with her father's mood swings and the black dog that followed him around despite their close bond The connection between father and daughter became even more apparent as Kelly began to battle her own mental health issues that as a mum to two young children would threaten to destroy her life In this incredibly frank and poignant memoir Kelly McLean provides a unique insight into life growing up as the daughter of one of the last old school fighters featuring many previously untold stories This is the story of East End life from a woman who has seen it lived it and sometimes been plagued by it

Making Faces, Playing God Thomas Morawetz, 2013-04-01 Wearing a mask putting on another face embodies a fundamental human fantasy of inhabiting other bodies and experiencing other lives In this extensively illustrated book Thomas Morawetz explores how the creation of transformational makeup for theatre movies and television fulfills this fantasy of self transformation and satisfies the human desire to become the other Morawetz begins by discussing the cultural role of fantasies of transformation and what these fantasies reveal about questions of personal identity He next turns to professional makeup artists and describes their background training careers and especially the techniques they use to create their art Then with numerous before during and after photos of transformational makeups from popular and little known shows and movies ads and artist's demos and portfolios he reveals the art and imagination that go into six kinds of mask making representing demons depicting aliens inventing disguises transforming actors into different older heavier disfigured versions of themselves and creating historical or mythological characters
