Ranger Born A Memoir Of Combat And Valor From Korea To Vietnam:

A Ranger Born Robert W. Black, 2007-12-18 Even as a boy growing up amid the green hills of rural Pennsylvania Robert W Black knew he was destined to become a Ranger With their three hundred year history of peerless courage and independence of spirit Rangers are a uniquely American brand of soldier one foot in the military one in the wilderness and that is what fired Black s imagination In this searing inspiring memoir Black recounts how he devoted himself body and soul to his proud service as an elite U S Army Ranger in Korea and Vietnam and what those years have taught him about himself his country and our future Born at the start of the Great Depression Black grew up on a farm at a time of great hardship but also tremendous national determination He was a kid who toughened up fast who learned the hard way to rely on his strength and his wits who saw the country go to war with Germany and Japan and wept because he was too young to serve As soon as the army would take him Black enlisted And as soon as he could muscle his way in he became a Ranger As a private first class in the 82d Airborne Division headquarters Black withstood the humiliations of enlisted service in the peacetime brown shoe army When the Korean War began he volunteered and trained to be an Airborne Ranger In Korea this young warrior his mind and body bursting with the lusts of adolescence grew up fast literally in the line of fire In clean vivid prose Black describes the hell of giving his all for a country that lacked the political resolve to give its all to a war against the North Koreans and the Chinese If Korea was frustrating Vietnam was maddening The heart of this book is devoted to the years of action that Black saw in Long An Province starting in 1967 Black writes of the perplexity of collaborating with South Vietnamese officers whose culture and motives he never fully understood he conjures up the sudden shock of the Tet Offensive and the daily horror of seeing fellow soldiers and innocent civilians slaughtered sometimes by stray bullets often by carelessness or treachery Vietnam challenged everything Black had come to believe in and left him totally unprepared for the hostility he would face when he returned to a war weary America Written with extraordinary candor and passion A Ranger Born is the memoir of a man who dedicated the best of his life to everything that is great and enduring about America At once intimate in its revelations and universal in its themes it is a book with profound relevance to our own troubled time in history

Forsaken Warriors Robert L. Tonsetic,2009-12-10 An insider s account of the South Vietnamese elites who strove to carry on the war against the Communists during the U S Army s withdrawal The book is a personal memoir of the author s service as a U S Army advisor during the end stages of America s involvement in Vietnam During the period 1970 71 the U S was beginning to draw down its combat forces and the new watchword was Vietnamization It was the period when the will of the U S to prosecute the war had slipped and transferring responsibility to the South Vietnamese was the only remaining hope for victory The author served as a U S Army advisor to South Vietnamese Ranger and Airborne units during this critical period The units that the author advised spearheaded several campaigns in South Vietnam Cambodia and Laos as the U S combat units withdrew Often outnumbered and outgunned the elite ranger and airborne units fought Viet Cong and North Vietnamese units in some of the most difficult terrain in Southeast Asia ranging from the legendary U Minh forest and Mo So mountains in the Mekong Delta to the rugged hills of southern Laos The role of the small U S advisory teams is fully explained in the narrative With little support from higher headquarters these teams accompanied the Vietnamese units on highly dangerous combat operations over which they had no command or control authority When U S advisors were restricted from accompanying South Vietnamese forces on cross border operations in Cambodia and especially Laos the South Vietnamese forces were badly mauled raising concerns about their readiness and training and their ability to operate without their U S advisors As a result a major effort was placed on training these forces while the clock continued to run on the U S withdrawal Having served with a U S infantry battalion during the peak years of the U S involvement in Vietnam Robert Tonsetic the acclaimed author of Days of Valor is able to view the war through two different prisms and offer criticisms and an awareness of why the South Vietnamese armed forces were ultimately defeated An exciting account of Robert Tonsetic s combat tours during the final stages of our long involvement in the Vietnam War Soldiers Marines training for advisory duty in Iraq or Afghanistan would do well to read this excellent work Proceedings Of special interest is the way Tonsetic recounts the dynamics of personalities their effect on indigenous commanders units A must read for any soldiers likely to conduct partnering activities in the future Soldier Magazine War Paint Bill Goshen,2007-12-18 The men who served with in the 1st Infantry Division with F company 52nd Infantry LRP later redesignated as Company I 75th Infantry Ranger engaged in some of the fiercest bloodiest fighting during the Vietnam War suffering a greater relative aggregate of casualties than any other LRRP LRP Ranger company Their base was Lai Khe within hailing distance of the Vietcong central headquarters a mile inside Cambodia with its vast stockpiles of weapons and thousands of transient VC and NVA soldiers Recondo qualified Bill Goshen was there and has written the first account of these battle hardened soldiers As the eyes and ears of the Big Red One the 1st Infantry these hunter killer teams of only six men instered deep inside enemy territory had to survive by their wits or suffer the deadly consequences Goshen himself barely escaped with his life in a virtual suicide mission that destroyed half his team His gripping narrative recaptures the raw courage and sacrifice of American soldiers fighting a savage war of survival men of all colors from all walks of life warriors bonded by triumph and tragedy by life and death They served proudly in Vietnam and their stories need to be told Diary of an Airborne Ranger Frank Johnson,2010-11-24 Perhaps the most accurate story of LRRPs at war ever to appear in print When Frank Johnson arrived in Vietnam in 1969 he was nineteen a young soldier untested in combat like thousands of others but with two important differences Johnson volunteered for the elite L Company Rangers of the 101st Airborne Division a long range reconnaissance patrol LRRP unit and he kept a secret diary a practice forbidden by the military to protect the security of LRRP operations Now more than three decades later those hastily written pages offer a rare look at the daily operations of one of the most courageous units that waged war in Vietnam Johnson served in I Corps in northern Vietnam where combat was furious and the events he recounts emerge stark and compelling walking point in the A Shau Valley braving enemy fire to rescue a downed comrade surviving days and nights of relentless tension that suddenly exploded in the blinding fury of an NVA attack Undimmed and unmuddied by the passing of years Johnson s account is unique in the annals of Vietnam literature Moreover it is a timeless testimony to the sacrifice and heroism of the LRRPs who dared to risk it all An Accidental Soldier Manny Garcia,2003 I was born in a log cabin just like Abe Lincoln except our cabin was a rental Starting with this account of his humble origins Manny Garcia who describes himself as a left handed rather contrary Mestizo American has written a memoir that begins in late 1947 in the San Luis Valley of Southern Colorado and takes him to Utah and a stint as a Mormon and ultimately to Vietnam In late 1965 a cocky naive alienated teen ager Garcia joined the army almost accidentally enlisting for three years At eighteen he became an Airborne Ranger a combat infantryman with the crack First Brigade of the 101st Airborne Division the Screaming Eagles His book shows you the war from the point man position up close and personal at eye level I returned to the body and checked for booby traps I noticed the guerilla s small bare leathery feet I rolled the body over and realized the corpse at my feet was an old woman Her hair was pulled back and tied in a bun like how my grandmother used to wear her own hair This was my first kill I killed a woman before I made love to one I killed a woman before I was old enough to vote I killed a woman before I bought my first car I killed a woman and I was an Eagle Scout I killed a woman while I was on probation to the Juvenile Court I killed a woman before I knew she was a woman I killed a woman while working for the United States Army in South Vietnam I had killed before I had lived The afternoon in the jungle was bright and hot I stood there sweating bewildered dumfounded and completely absorbed by the power from An Accidental Soldier A valuable contribution to the growing list of Viet Nam narratives told from communities whose histories have yet to be fully recognized Jorge Mariscal University of California San Diego American Warrior John C. Bahnsen, Wess Roberts, 2007 Drawing on his own recollections as well as those of the men who fought beside him Bahnsen steps out of his legend to bring the experience of war to life in full unvarnished detail Includes 16 pages of never before seen photographs

Back in the Fight Joseph Kapacziewski, Charles W. Sasser, 2013-05-07 The inspiring and thrilling combat memoir of the only Army Ranger serving in direct combat operations with a prosthetic limb On October 3 2005 Kapacziewski and his soldiers were coming to the end of their tour in Northern Iraq when their convoy was attacked by enemy fighters A grenade fell through the gunner s hatch and exploded shattering Kapacziewski s right leg below the knee damaging his right hip and severing a nerve and artery in his right arm He endured more than forty surgeries but his right leg still wasn t healing as he had hoped so in March 2007 Kapacziewski chose to have it amputated with one goal in mind to return to the line and serve alongside his fellow Rangers One year after his surgery Kapacziewski accomplished his goal he was put back on the line as a squad leader of his Army Ranger Regiment On April 19 2010 during his ninth combat deployment and fifth after losing his leg Kapacziewski s patrol ran into an ambush outside a village in eastern Afghanistan After a fellow Ranger fell to withering enemy fire shot through the belly Sergeant Kap and another soldier dragged him seventy five yards to safety and administered first aid that saved his life while heavy machineguns tried to kill them His actions earned him an Army Commendation Medal with V for Valor He had previously been awarded a Bronze Star for Valor and a total of three Purple Hearts for combat wounds Back in the Fight is an inspiring and thrilling tale readers will never forget Phantom Warriors Gary Linderer, 2008-12-10 Here are some of the most courageous missions executed by six man teams on their own deep behind enemy lines Ranging from the Central Highlands to the Mekong Delta to excursions authorized and unauthorized into Cambodia these gripping accounts begin when the call first went out for covert U S long range reconnaissance patrols in late 1965 continue through the battles of Tet and go all the way up to the final tortured pullout These are LRRP LRP and Ranger units at their finest under the most desperate circumstances one team surrounded by the enemy with no choice but to break out of the trap or die another caught in an ambush of horrific proportions When recon missions suddenly became contact missions when grenades started flying and AK 47s were smoking each man s life was instantly on the line and only his skills and the grit of his teammates could prevent certain death These highly trained warriors were among the best America had to offer and they gave their best no matter how high the price
