Patronage And Politics In The U S S R:

Patronage and Politics in the USSR John P. Willerton, 1992 How do Soviet politicians rise to power How are national and regional regimes formed How are conflicting political interests brought together as policies are developed in the Soviet Union In Patronage and Politics in the USSR first published in 1991 Professor John Willerton offers major insights into the patronage networks that have dominated elite mobility regime formation and governance in the Soviet Union during the past twenty five years Using the biographical and career details of over two thousand national leaders and regional officials in Azerbaijan and Lithuania John Willerton traces the patron client relations underlying recruitment mobility and policymaking He explores the strategies of power consolidation and coalition building used by Soviet chief executives since 1964 as well as the institutional links and policy outcomes that have resulted from network politics The author also assesses the manner and extent to which leaders in politically stable and less stable settings spanning different national cultural contexts have relied upon patronage networks to consolidate power and to govern Finally Professor Willerton explores how in a period of dramatic change patron client networks may have given way to institutionalised interest groups and political parties
