Board of Education Charles L. Moore CPA, 2021-07-15 The election of the Biden Harris ticket brought out appropriately 75% of all registered voters It was historic that African American voters came out in numbers that surpassed the election where President Barack Obama won The one item that was absent from most election information was the education policy of the Democrats unlike the 2016 election between Clinton v Trump During that election front and center was the Hillary Clinton education agenda that clearly would punish alternative education in favor of public schools The difference in this election came down to over turnout in three key cities Detroit Milwaukee and Philadelphia Black Wall for Joe Biden where charter and schools of choice dominate the educational landscape These parents were reluctant to vote democratic when education is on the ballot because traditional public education has failed these communities and left them out of mainstream economic growth Therefore the parents and grandparents in these communities have used Education Choice in hopes and prayers that their children and grandchildren could get a better public education The landmark decision of Brown v Board of Education was supposed to give Blacks control of their public education give Black teachers better wages and equalize program funding Why is it that over approximately 2 900 000 students select charters or schools of choice over local public schools Why is that that over 80% of urban educators and their families make the same choice Because public schools continue to fail urban youth and feed the pipeline to prison This book goes in depth as to why this is the case and why money is in failure How can urban educators sell a product to families that they themselves won t buy Also the solution of increasing teachers pay and improving education is within the book Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2005 How Canadians Communicate V David Taras, Christopher Waddell, 2016-03-15 Fewer Canadians than ever are lacing

up skates swimming lengths at the pool practicing their curve ball and experiencing the thrill of competition However despite a decline in active participation Canadians spend enormous amounts of time and money on sports as fans and followers of sporting events and sports culture Never has media coverage of sports been more exhaustive and never has it been more driven by commercial interests and the need to fuel consumerism on which corporate profits depend But the power plays now occurring in the arena of sports are by no means solely a matter of money At issue as well in the media capture of sports are the values that inform our daily lives the physical and emotional health of the population and the symbols so long central to a sense of Canadian identity Writing from a variety of perspectives the contributors to this collection set out to explore the impact of the media on our reception of and attitudes toward sports to unpack the meanings that sports have for us as citizens and consumers Some contributors probe the function of sports as spectacle the escalation of violence controversies over drug use and the media's coverage of tragic deaths while others shed light on the way in which the media serve to transform sports into a vehicle for the expression of identity and nationalism The goal is not to score points but to prompt critical discussion of why sports matter in Canadian life and culture and how they contribute to the construction of identity
