AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

ALVIN JOHNSON

Pioneers Progress An Autobiography:

Pioneer's Progress: An Autobiography Alvin Johnson, 2020-05-22 This is the story of a long and brilliant career in American education Johnson writes with humor modesty and what seems to be total recall a fascinating report of a useful life Bruce Bliven The New York Times Alvin Johnson has written a first rate life history but by that fact he has also written a good deal more For he has told his life in a way that shows how it holds in microcosm all the dominant themes of our American history and society Johnson must have been a bewildering paradox for his more solemn academic colleagues a Nebraska farmer who knew the dead languages and most of the European living ones an economist who knew literature and anthropology and the new psychology an original thinker who was at ease in the columns of the New Republic an irreverent man who refused to follow the latest revolutionary dogmas but was merciless in knocking the sawdust out of the stuffy orthodoxies Johnson can believe in other men because he has a quiet fortress of strength in himself Lytton Strachey remarked that it is harder to write a good life than to lead one Alvin Johnson has done both Max Lerner The American Scholar This autobiography is remarkable for the long and fruitful span of life which it records for the rich and varied contents and for the humor which the author plays upon every chapter every chapter bears witness to the honesty of the author s statement Never in all my life have I given a hoot for personal security George M Stephenson The American Historical Review This American success story is refreshingly different from the usual rags to riches one Alvin Johnson is the best kind of man that America produces and his autobiography both in the writing and the story that is told is one of the best books of the year The Providence Journal It is necessary for any thoughtful American to take Pioneer s Progress in hand You can pick it up lay it down come back to it at any odd moment even on the subway with pleasure and profit It is as various in content as a good meal Dorothy Canfield Fisher What you will remember is the Nebraska boy applying his farmbred wisdom and his father s courage to all the questions that fate tossed his way New York Herald Tribune Alvin Johnson s biography ought to be required reading both here and abroad for anyone who wants to understand American government and the American spirit Adolf A Berle Jr A fine and mellow autobiography by the father of adult education in this country His book is alive with anecdotes on everything from life on a remote Nebraska farm to pioneering in the field of the social sciences Education s man of action in a self portrait which is permeated with a homespun charm and humor and invigorated by the character of the man and his impressive influence Kirkus Reviews This book relates the interesting life story of a great American liberal and intellectual leader The reader of Pioneer s Progress is constantly amazed at the versatility of a man who is able to cram so many good works into one lifetime Yet his book is written with such simplicity modesty and self deprecating humor that one cannot help but like as well as admire him L S Curtis Journal of Negro History A lively story which the more or less retired president of the New School has written about his activities up to now a man s record of his own life Among the causes which this man helped turn into movements were land reclamation rescue of scholars from destruction by Hitler Mussolini and the Communists peace and racial justice But adult education is his great consuming passion Of this the New School for Social Research whose founding president he was is living testimony To Alvin Johnson all causes racial justice peace better farming and better health what have you are one with adult education One learns by reading by observing by arguing by acting by interacting with other people And perhaps this is the important thing about the man he would not be confined And it is in the story of the New School that we learn what the man Johnson really is This man is strictly a public entrepreneur Everett C Hughes Commentary Magazine Despite the sophistication of the higher reaches of learning and academic endeavor that form a large part of Johnson s story he never completely leaves the soil or the West The Nebraska beginnings so charmingly chronicled in the early part of the book seem tied intimately to later chapters that related his adventures in land reclamation and his theories on sugar beets Danish farmers even Montana Indian reservations All these serve to demonstrate convincingly that the western roots of Alvin Johnson grew deep indeed Carl Ubbelohde Montana The Magazine of Western History All through his long years of active life Alvin Johnson has fought against bigotry and pettiness of spirit He is always the free spirit who puts reasoned enlightenment and imaginative and creative thinking against academic stuffiness and oppressive intolerance But he is never satisfied with mere verbal expression he always seeks to concretize his reactions into living institutions His autobiography is therefore not only a moving and inspiring story of his own spiritual development but also a chronicle of American cultural institutions during the past 50 years Koppel S Pinson Jewish Social Studies One s first response to Dr Johnson s autobiography is of pride that so useful so various and what one ventures to call so American a life should belong to us this autobiography with its spontaneous combination of concepts and concerns offers most interesting materials for the student of our national development in modern times Louis Filler The Mississippi Valley Historical Review Pioneers Progress Alvin Johnson,1960 Pioneer's Progress, an Autobiography Alvin Saunders Johnson,2003 The Best Gift Margaret Beckman,Stephen Langmead,John Black,1984-01-01 This book is a vivid reminder of the early days of library development in Ontario The beautiful buildings which still grace Ontario towns and villages as illustrated are a part of our provincial heritage By the turn of the century a public library was perceived as an important element in the civic fabric of almost every Ontario community However the introduction of the Carnegie grants for library buildings gave impetus to the Ontario government programme for library development and provided a focus for increased support of library services Rivalry among neighbouring communities to secure a Carnegie library heightened this awareness as did the publicity in some instances even controversy which surrounded each step of the grant seeking site selection and plan approval process As well the hitherto unexplored story of Carnegie grant process in each community has been examined and the role of one man James Bertram secretary to Andrew Carnegie is revealed in absorbing detail Library plans and design elements are also discussed and the influence of a few architects on the building designs is revealed the fascinating involvement of Frank Lloyd Wright in the Pembroke Carnegie library building is one such example Unlikely

Heroes Ari Kohen, Gerald Steinacher, 2019-01-01 Classes and books on the Holocaust often center on the experiences of victims perpetrators and bystanders but rescuers also occupy a prominent space in Holocaust courses and literature even though incidents of rescue were relatively few and rescuers constituted less than 1 percent of the population in Nazi occupied Europe As inspiring figures and role models rescuers challenge us to consider how we would act if we found ourselves in similarly perilous situations of grave moral import Their stories speak to us and move us Yet this was not always the case Seventy years ago these brave men and women today regarded as the Righteous Among the Nations went largely unrecognized indeed sometimes they were even singled out for abuse from their co nationals for their selfless actions Unlikely Heroes traces the evolution of the humanitarian hero looking at the ways in which historians politicians and filmmakers have treated individual rescuers like Raoul Wallenberg and Oskar Schindler as well as the rescue efforts of humanitarian organizations Contributors in this edited collection also explore classroom possibilities for dealing with the role of rescuers at both the university and the secondary level

A Light in Dark Times Judith Friedlander, 2019-02-05 The New School for Social Research opened in 1919 as an act of protest Founded in the name of academic freedom it quickly emerged as a pioneer in adult education providing what its first president Alvin Johnson liked to call the continuing education of the educated By the mid 1920s the New School had become the place to go to hear leading figures lecture on politics and the arts and recent developments in new fields of inquiry such as anthropology and psychoanalysis Then in 1933 after Hitler rose to power Johnson created the University in Exile within the New School Welcoming nearly two hundred refugees Johnson together with these exiled scholars defiantly maintained the great traditions of Europe s imperiled universities Judith Friedlander reconstructs the history of the New School in the context of ongoing debates over academic freedom and the role of education in liberal democracies Against the backdrop of World War I and the first red scare the rise of fascism and McCarthyism the student uprisings during the Vietnam War and the downfall of communism in Eastern Europe Friedlander tells a dramatic story of intellectual political and financial struggle through illuminating sketches of internationally renowned scholars and artists These include among others Charles A Beard John Dewey Jos Clemente Orozco Robert Heilbroner Hannah Arendt and gnes Heller Featured prominently as well are New School students trustees and academic leaders As the New School prepares to celebrate its one hundredth anniversary A Light in Dark Times offers a timely reflection on the legacy of this unique institution which has boldly defended dissident intellectuals and artists in the United States and overseas
