Nba Opening Night For Beginners Near Me:

Prehistoric Alex Wong, 2023-10-24 The improbable story of the birth of modern day pro basketball in Toronto In just over 25 years the Toronto Raptors have evolved from an intrepid expansion team to an NBA champion But for all the triumphs of the past decade the beginning looked a bit different When the franchise began its first season in 1995 a pro basketball team in Toronto was viewed as an experiment There was no playbook to follow and very few people gave them a chance to succeed In Prehistoric irreverent Raptors voice and culture writer Alex Wong explores the franchise s fascinating and unconventional inception through 140 original interviews with those involved with the team s very beginning examining the process of how the team came up with their name and logo inspired by the blockbuster film Jurassic Park taking a behind the scenes look at the drafting of star point guard Damon Stoudamire telling the backstories of a group of misfits who formed the first year roster and providing an in depth look at the team s opening night victory at the SkyDome and the expansion franchise s signature win over Michael Jordan and a 72 win Chicago Bulls team The Raptors boldly and intentionally pursued a much different audience in a hockey first town The result is a team who went through the necessary growing pains and eventually captured the heart of a city as told in this essential origin story through the lens of the people who were there to help lay the foundation for a thriving modern day basketball franchise in Toronto The Savvy Guide to Fantasy Sports Michael Harmon, Mike Harmon, 2005 Taking a fresh approach to fantasy sports this guide covers strategies and techniques both unique to specific sports and trends applicable to all sports while providing tips to help the casual player get the most out of every game The Basketball 100 The Athletic, David Aldridge, John Hollinger, 2024-11-26 A celebration of basketball by way of the 100 greatest players to ever grace the court in the history of the NBA from The Athletic s foremost basketball writers and analysts the game has to offer With a foreword by Charles Barkley Over the course of 100 luminous player profiles the best sports newsroom on the planet paints vivid portraits of the game s most compelling characters There s George Mikan who was cut from his high school team because he wore glasses then went on to become the fledgling NBA s first transcendent star Gary Payton called The Glove for his skintight defense who talked as much trash to his teammates as he did to his opponents on the court Dennis Rodman who started playing basketball at age 20 and in a few short years went from working as a janitor at the airport to being one of the strangest superstars that sport has ever known Allen Iverson who drew inspiration from hip hop for his inimitable style and swagger on and off the court Kareem Abdul Jabbar who was so dominant in the paint that they changed the rules and Steph Curry who was so dominant outside it that he seemed to expand the very boundaries of the court The Basketball 100 edited by award winning reporters David Aldridge and John Hollinger also answers the game s toughest most important questions How should we weight championship rings versus statistical profiles versus the eye test Were the great players of yesteryear like Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell propelled by the inferior athleticism of their competition or would they have been transcendent in any era And of course who s the GOAT MJ or LeBron Speaking of GOATs for the book Hollinger inventor of the statistical metric PER has created a new benchmark GOAT Points Wonderfully written authoritative and full of joy The Basketball 100 is a fitting tribute to the greatest sport in the world
