The Age of Dimes and Pulps Jeremy Agnew, 2018-07-31 From the dime novels of the Civil War era to the pulp magazines of the early 20th century to modern paperbacks lurid fiction has provided thrilling escapism for the masses Cranking out formulaic stories of melodrama crime and mild erotica often by uncredited authors focused more on volume than quality publishers realized high profits playing to low tastes Estimates put pulp magazine circulation in the 1930s at 30 million monthly This vast body of disposable literature has received little critical attention in large part because much of it has been lost the cheaply made books were either discarded after reading or soon disintegrated Covering the history of pulp literature from 1850 through 1960 the author describes how sensational tales filled a public need and flowered during the evolving social conditions of the Industrial Revolution Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This multidisciplinary handbook pulls together in one volume the research on children's and young adult literature which is currently scattered across three intersecting disciplines education English and library and information science Towards Sherlock Holmes Stephen Knight, 2016-12-30 Crime fiction a product of the burgeoning metropolis of the 19th century features specialists who identify criminals to protect an anxious citizenry Before detectives came to play the central role the protagonists tended to be lawyers or other professionals Major English writers like Gaskell Dickens and Collins contributed to the genre Fergus Hume's The Mystery of a Hansom Cab was a best seller in 1887 and American and French authors created new forms This book explores thematic aspects of 19th century crime fiction's complex history including various social and gender roles between different time periods and settings and the imperial elements that made Sherlock Holmes seem dynamically contemporary Library Literature, 1934 An index to library and information science South African Journal of Library and Information Science, 1998 Newsboy, 1997 The Bowker Annual Library and Book Trade Almanac, 1996 American History Through Literature, 1870-1920 Tom Quirk, Gary Scharnhorst, 2006 This volume organized from addiction to Ghost stories features articles on works ideas genres aesthetics events places societal values and the history of publishing from 1870 to 1920 Scorned Literature Lydia Cushman Schurman, Deidre A.
