Pious And Secular America:

Pious and Secular America Reinhold Niebuhr, 2001-08-31      Religious America, Secular Europe? Peter Berger, Grace Davie, Effie Fokas, 2021-11-18 Europe is a relatively secular part of the world in global terms Why is this so And why is the situation in Europe so different from that in the United States The first chapter of this book the theme articulates this contrast The remaining chapters the variations look in turn at the historical philosophical institutional and sociological dimensions of these differences Key ideas are examined in detail among them constitutional issues the Enlightenment systems of law education and welfare questions of class ethnicity gender and generation In each chapter both the similarities and differences between the European and the American cases are carefully scrutinized The final chapter explores the ways in which these features translate into policy on both sides of the Atlantic This book is highly topical and relates very directly to current misunderstandings between Europe and America      America's Religious Wars Kathleen M. Sands, 2019-06-04

How American conflicts about religion have always symbolized our foundational political values When Americans fight about religion we are also fighting about our conflicting identities interests and commitments Religion talk has been a ready vehicle for these conflicts because it is built on enduring contradictions within our core political values The Constitution treats religion as something to be confined behind a wall but in public communications the Framers treated religion as the foundation of the American republic Ever since Americans have translated disagreements on many other issues into an endless debate about the role of religion in our public life Built around a set of compelling narratives George Washington's battle with Quaker pacifists the fight of Mormons and Catholics for equality with Protestants Teddy Roosevelt's concept of land versus the Lakota's concept the creation evolution controversy and the struggle over sexuality this book shows how religion throughout American history has symbolized but never resolved our deepest political questions      The

Pious and Secular America Reinhold Niebuhr, 1958      The American Educational Annual, 1875      Empty Churches James L. Heft, Jan E. Stets, 2021 Based in the idea that social phenomena are best studied through the lens of different disciplinary perspectives Empty Churches studies the growing number of individuals who no longer affiliate with a religious tradition Co editors Jan Stets a social psychologist and James Heft a historian of theology bring together leading scholars in the fields of sociology developmental psychology gerontology political science history philosophy and pastoral theology The scholars in this volume explore the phenomenon by drawing from each other's work to understand better the multi faceted nature of non affiliation today They explore the complex impact that non affiliation has on individuals and the wider society and what the future looks like for religion in America The book also features insightful perspectives from parents of young adults and interviews with pastors struggling with this issue who address how we might address this trend Empty Churches provides a rich and thoughtful analysis on non affiliation in American society from multiple scholarly perspectives The increasing growth of non affiliation threatens the vitality and long term stability of religious institutions and this book offers guidance on maintaining the commitment and community at the heart of these institutions Religious and Secular Reform in America David Keith Adams,Cornelis A. van Minnen,1999 In this new book twelve eminent historians assess various aspects of religious and secular reform in America The Jewish People in America: A time for building: the third migration, 1880-1920 ,1992 A history of the Jews in America from colonial times to the present See the index in each volume for references to antisemitism Contents The American Ecclesiastical Review Herman Joseph Heuser,1949
