Thomas, 2011-10-05 One hundred and fifty years ago the Royal Navy fought a daring campaign against ruthless pirates and won killing The King of the Pirates Bartholomew Roberts off the coast of Africa and capturing his fleet Scores of his men were executed by the Admiralty Court On the Barbary Coast of North Africa pirates preyed on shipping in the Mediterranean and the Atlantic as they had done for centuries and they terrorized the populations of the coastal towns To them piracy was a way of life and the great sea powers of the day couldn't stop them Then in one of the most remarkable and neglected anti piracy operations in maritime history the Royal Navy confronted them defeated them and made the seas safe for trade This is the subject of Graham A Thomass compelling new study of one of the most pernicious episodes in the history of African piracy As he tells this compelling story he uncovers the long tradition of piracy and privateering along the African shore Vividly he describes attacks not only in the Mediterranean but also on the other side of the continent along the shores of West Africa and around Madagascar But perhaps the most telling sections of his narrative concern critical engagements that stand out from the story the daring rescue of the British merchant ship The Three Sisters by HMS Polyphemus in 1848 and the actions of the battleship HMS Prometheus against the Rif pirates a few years later His account is based on documents held at the National Archives and other original sources It gives a fascinating inside view into the way in which the Royal Navy responded to the menace of piracy in the nineteenth century Shadowrun: Tourist Trapped Bryan CP Steele,2021-04-08 STRANGER IN A STRANGE LAND When what should have been a simple hack and grab heist in the Dallas metroplex goes terribly wrong shadowrunner Gilabyte is advised by his Mr Johnson to lay low for a while even take a trip out of town While is how the technomancer finds himself relaxing in the far wilds of Toronto At first the enforced vacation is pretty sweet plush digs plenty of nuyen and the entire city available for him to sample But then the lights go out and they don't come back on the next day or the next Within 3 days of the blackout it's every person for themselves as Toronto starts to splinter apart Gilabyte just wants to get back home but finds himself making new allies and dubious deals in order to get safely out of town Along the way he uncovers clues to a larger conspiracy that affects him and his sprites directly and could lead to all technomancers becoming a valuable and endangered species if the wrong people get their hands on him
