When Roman King decides that after high school graduation he will not try out for college baseball and will instead marry his high school sweetheart Linda, his father Dave forces Roman to try out anyway. As the warring father and son duo fly to Honolulu for the tryouts, they crash on a deserted island where they face not just the demons of the sea but of their own minds. As Roman and Dave struggle to connect and survive, Roman develops the physical strength and unique skill set to succeed as an outstanding baseball phenomenon if only they can get off the island. This story captures the essence of young love and parents wanting the absolute best for their children. Read how Roman achieves his dreams and that of his father's in ways never even imagined. Borland C++ 2.0 Programming Ben Ezzell, 1991.
