Annual Report of the Dept. of Public Works Chicago (Ill.). Department of Public Works, 1899 The Afterlife of Charles Dickens's "Great Expectations" in the Late 20th and Early 21st Century Enver Kazić, 2016-05-02 Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade A University of Sarajevo course English Language and Literature language English abstract It seems that the 19th century industrial development and generally the period called Victorian age was not suitable for the urban writer such as Dickens It should not come as a surprise that Dickens was not very satisfied with the period he lived in or with people around him The fact that he had already sold the lease on his London house and moved to the swamp North Kent Marshes before he started to write the novel Great Expectations may come as a proof for this statement Dickens was forty eight then and he could not stand pollution and bad public health or the famous London fog of which he wrote so much in his novels Bleak House and Our Mutual Friend There is however always a huge diversion between rural and urban in Dickens novels especially in Great Expectations Because of this huge distinction Tristan Sipley in her work The Revenge of Swamp Thing Wetlands Industrial Capitalism and the Ecological Contradiction of Great Expectations divides Dickens in the two groups pastoral Dickens and gritty urban Dickens In Great Expectations marsh the place where the main protagonist Pip lives the marsh is without a doubt showed as a place of wrongdoings criminality and everything bad The Killing Game Mark Bourrie,2016-03-08 On January 21 2015 a pro ISIS Twitter account reported that John Maguire a 23 year old university drop out from the Ottawa Valley town of Kemptville had been killed fighting Kurds in the Syrian city of Kobani A few weeks before Maguire had starred in a YouTube video threatening Canada for bombing ISIS forces in Iraq He is one of the dozens of young Canadians who have chosen to fight in a vicious conflict that really had little to do with them and with Canada Why would young people choose to fight in other people s wars especially one as bloody and cruel as this one Why has ISIS become so good at attracting foreign fighters This book examines the lure of this radical Islamist movement its religious beliefs sophisticated propaganda and vast social media networks ISIS is now a go to cause for alienated young people in the Islamic World and the West Does it offer answers to troubled young people Are ISIS s crimes slavery murder rape repression and the destruction of heritage sites an attraction in and of themselves What do we do about the people who take up ISIS s cause but stay in their home country What do we do with the ISIS recruits who come home The Killing Game examines what draws young men and women to join violent social political movements It looks at the psychology of young men and women today and the propaganda used by all sides in the Middle East conflicts as well as the security laws and the political initiatives that have been designed to stop Canadians from being radicalized From the irresistible lure of Marxist Leninism of the 1930s through the 60s and 70s and including the appeal of Nazism to young Germans in the 1930s this book also investigates what it is that draws young people to join and fight for causes as different as the Spanish Civil War of the 1930s and the Red Brigades of the 1970s but with an emphasis on the attraction of ISIS and radical Islam in our own time American Steam and Hot-water Heating Practice Engineering Record, Building Record and Sanitary Engineer,1895 Alabama Business ,1960 Minutes of Evidence Cape of Good Hope (South Africa).
