kmaq Basque German and other languages as well as the many names echoing the towns and regions that fond immigrants had left behind reflect Canada's diverse multicultural heritage. Many places were named after people who played a role in local history or more celebrated heroes of foreign affairs. In these cases, brief biographical details identify such eponymous individuals as the poet Robert Service or Mary March, the English name given to Demasduit, Beothuk wife of Chief Nonosbawut, whose capture by local settlers led to her death in 1820, one of the last of her now extinct race. A surprising number of places were named after battles and military leaders, many after peculiar features of the landscape and others for animals, ships, fruit, and native religious beliefs. Anyone who has felt curious about the choice of names like South Porcupine, Dildo Head, Smashed In, Buffalo Jump, Magnetic Hill, or Saint Louis du Ha Ha will find much of interest in this book.
