Plainwater Essays And Poetry:

Plainwater Anne Carson, 2015-03-18 The poetry and prose collected in Plainwater are a testament to the extraordinary imagination of Anne Carson a writer described by Michael Ondaatje as the most exciting poet writing in English today Succinct and astonishingly beautiful these pieces stretch the boundaries of language and literary form while juxtaposing classical and modern traditions Carson envisions a present day interview with a seventh century BC poet and offers miniature lectures on topics as varied as orchids and Ovid She imagines the muse of a fifteenth century painter attending a phenomenology conference in Italy She constructs verbal photographs of a series of mysterious towns and takes us on a pilgrimage in pursuit of the elusive and intimate anthropology of water Blending the rhythm and vivid metaphor of poetry with the discursive nature of the essay the writings in Plainwater dazzle us with their invention and enlighten us with their erudition

Literature and Event Mantra Mukim, Derek Attridge, 2021-11-29 If event is a proper name we reserve for monumental changes crises transitions and ruptures that are by their very nature unnameable or unthinkable then this volume is an attempt to set up an encounter between such eventhood as it comes to have a bearing on literary works and the work of reading literature As the event continues to provide a valuable analytical paradigm for work undertaken within the newer subdisciplines of literary and critical theory including close reading bio politics world literature and eco criticism this volume makes a concerted effort to update the scholarship in this area and foreground the recent resurgence of interest in the concept The book provides both a retrospective appraisal of the significance of events to literary studies and the literary humanities as well as contemporary and prospective appraisals of the same and thus would appeal scholars and instructors in the areas of literary theory comparative literature and philosophical aesthetics alike Along with a specialist focus on thinkers such as Derrida Badiou Deleuze and Malabou the essays in this volume read a wide corpus of literature ranging from Han Kang Homer Renee Gladman Proust and Flaubert to Yoruba ideophones Browning Anne Carson Jenichiro Oyabe and Ben Lerner

In Translation □ Reflections, Refractions, Transformations Paul St-Pierre, Prafulla C. Kar, 2007-05-16 With contributions by researchers from India Europe North America and the Caribbean In Translation Reflections refractions transformations touches on questions of method and on topics including copyright cultural hybridity globalization identity construction and minority languages which are important for the disciplinary development of translation studies but also of interest to other fields as well most notably comparative literature cultural studies and world literature The volume provides a forum for new voices to be heard alongside those of well established scholars and for current concerns to express themselves often focusing on practices in areas of the world other than Europe or North America which have until now tended to dominate the field Acknowledging difference and celebrating it the contributions conceive of translation as a process which reconstitutes and transforms which brings renewal and growth an interaction in a new context a new reading a new writing

Prose Poetry Paul Hetherington, Cassandra Atherton, 2020-10-13 An engaging and authoritative

introduction to an increasingly important and popular literary genre Prose Poetry is the first book of its kind an engaging and authoritative introduction to the history development and features of English language prose poetry an increasingly important and popular literary form that is still too little understood and appreciated Poets and scholars Paul Hetherington and Cassandra Atherton introduce prose poetry s key characteristics chart its evolution from the nineteenth century to the present and discuss many historical and contemporary prose poems that both demonstrate their great diversity around the Anglophone world and show why they represent some of today s most inventive writing A prose poem looks like prose but reads like poetry it lacks the line breaks of other poetic forms but employs poetic techniques such as internal rhyme repetition and compression Prose Poetry explains how this form opens new spaces for writers to create riveting works that reshape the resources of prose while redefining the poetic Discussing prose poetry s precursors including William Wordsworth and Walt Whitman and prose poets such as Charles Simic Russell Edson Lydia Davis and Claudia Rankine the book pays equal attention to male and female prose poets documenting women s essential but frequently unacknowledged contributions to the genre Revealing how prose poetry tests boundaries and challenges conventions to open up new imaginative vistas this is an essential book for all readers students teachers and writers of prose poetry

The Daughter's Way Tanis MacDonald, 2012-09-01 The Daughter s Way investigates negotiations of female subjectivity in twentieth century Canadian women s elegies with a special emphasis on the father s death as a literary and political watershed The book examines the work of Dorothy Livesay P K Page Jay Macpherson Margaret Atwood Kristjana Gunnars Lola Lemire Tostevin Anne Carson and Erin Mour as elegiac daughteronomies literary artifacts of mourning that grow from the poets investigation into the function and limitations of elegiac convention Some poets treat the father as a metaphor for socio political power while others explore more personal iterations of loss but all the poets in The Daughter s Way seek to redefine daughterly duty in a contemporary context by challenging elegiac tradition through questions of genre and gender Beginning with psychoanalytical theories of filiation inheritance and mourning as they are complicated by feminist challenges to theories of kinship and citizenship The Daughter s Way debates the efficacy of the literary work of mourning in twentieth century Canadian poetry By investigating the way a daughter s filial piety performs and sometimes reconfigures such work and situating melancholia as a creative force in women s elegies the book considers how elegies inquire into the rhetoric of mourning as it is complicated by father daughter kinship

Writing Creative Non-Fiction Kapka Kassabova, John I MacArtney, Katie Karnehm, Rodge Glass, Helen Pleasance, Rebecca Gordon Stewart, Rhiannon Marks, Jo Collinson Scott, Erin Soros, Elizabeth Reeder, 2015-03-02 Writers of creative non fiction are often expected to be able to recreate reality to deal with or even access a singular truth But the author like any human is not an automaton remotely tasked with capturing a life or an event Whether we tell stories and understand them as fiction or non fiction or whether we draw away from these classifications writers craft and shape writing all writing No experience exists on a flat plane and recounting or interpreting

events will always involve some element of artistic manipulation every instance exchange discussion event is open to multiple interpretations and can be described in many ways all of which are potentially truthful Writing Creative Non Fiction

Determining the Form contains essays and original writing from novelists poets songwriters musicians and academics The book covers topics that range from explorations of the role of the author definitions and representations of the form self and illness to the spectral elements of non fiction and its role in historical narratives The essays included in this volume address everything from memoir biography and autobiography to a discussion of musical approaches to criticism and a non fiction interview The book identifies key writers including Christopher Isherwood David Shields B S Jonson James Frey sne Seierstad John D Agata W G Sebald Jonathan Coe Hilary Mantel James Kelman Liz Lochhead and Arthur Frank and is essential reading for students researchers and writers of creative non fiction
