Pluralizing Ethnography John Mamoru Watanabe, Edward F. Fischer, 2004 This volume brings together eight Maya specialists and a prominent anthropological theorist as discussant to assess the contrasting historical circumstances and emerging cultural futures of Maya in Mexico and Guatemala Rather than presume a romanticized timeless Maya culture or the globalized predicaments of transnationalized Maya imaginings this seminar took its cue from contemporary Maya cultural activists who derive their enduring sense of Mayan-ness from a historical consciousness of five hundred years of cultural resilience The contributors evaluate the history of Maya peoples and Maya anthropology by examining language religion political attitudes and activism ethnographic traditions and the relationship between economic change migration and cultural identity In comparing Maya peoples across Mexico and Guatemala the contributors emphasize on culture recovers intermediate linkages between the personal and the political the local and the global Their work enables a controlled cross cultural comparison across national boundaries and histories that in turn illuminates the articulation between locally constructed meanings and global transformations

Unsichere Zeiten Hans-Georg Soeffner, 2011-03-23 In den spätindustriellen Gesellschaften des Westens geht ein Zeitalter der Sicherheit zu Ende Wir erleben gegenwärtig die Transformation der durch scheinbar grenzenloses wirtschaftliches Wachstum anhaltende politische Stabilität und effektive wohlfahrtsstaatliche Garantien gekennzeichneten gesellschaftlichen Verhältnisse der langen Nachkriegszeit Die vielfältigen und widersprüchlichen Phänomene und Konstellationen zeitgenössischer Verunsicherung ihre Ursachen und Konsequenzen standen im Mittelpunkt der Debatten auf dem 34. Kongress der Deutschen

Gesellschaft für Soziologie in Jena Der vorliegende Band versammelt die Beiträge zur Eröffnung und Abschlussveranstaltung sowie die Vorträge der Plenar Mittagsvorlesungen Foren Sonderveranstaltungen Author meets Critics und Abendveranstaltungen Die beigelegte CD ROM enthält die Referate der Sektionssitzungen und Ad hoc Gruppen Chiefs, Scribes, and Ethnographers James Howe, 2010-01-01 The Kuna of Panama today one of the best known indigenous peoples of Latin America moved over the course of the twentieth century from orality and isolation towards literacy and an active engagement with the nation and the world Recognizing the fascination their culture has held for many outsiders Kuna intellectuals and villagers have collaborated actively with foreign anthropologists to counter anti Indian prejudice with positive accounts of their people thus becoming the agents as well as subjects of ethnography One team of chiefs and secretaries in particular independently produced a series of historical and cultural texts later published in Sweden that today still constitute the foundation of Kuna ethnography As a study of the political uses of literacy of western representation and indigenous counter representation and of the ambivalent inter cultural dialogue at the heart of ethnography Chiefs Scribes and Ethnographers addresses key issues in contemporary anthropology It is the story of an extended ethnographic encounter one involving hundreds of active participants on both sides and continuing today I Ask for Justice David Carey, Jr., 2013-10-01 This study of the Guatemalan legal system during the regimes of two of Latin America's most repressive dictators reveals the surprising extent to which Maya women used the courts to air their grievances and defend their human rights Winner Bryce Wood Book Award Latin American Studies Association 2015 Given Guatemala's record of human rights abuses its legal system has often been portrayed as illegitimate and anemic I Ask for Justice challenges that perception by demonstrating that even though the legal system was not always just rural Guatemalans considered it a legitimate arbiter of their grievances and an important tool for advancing their agendas As both a mirror and an instrument of the state the judicial system simultaneously illuminates the limits of state rule and the state's ability to co-opt Guatemalans by hearing their voices in court Against the backdrop of two of Latin America's most oppressive regimes the dictatorships of Manuel Estrada Cabrera 1898 1920 and General Jorge Ubico 1931 1944 David Carey Jr explores the ways in which indigenous people women and the poor used Guatemala's legal system to manipulate the boundaries between legality and criminality Using court records that are surprisingly rich in Maya women's voices he analyzes how bootleggers cross dressers and other litigants crafted their narratives to defend their human rights Revealing how nuances of power gender ethnicity class and morality were constructed and contested this history of crime and criminality demonstrates how Maya men and women attempted to improve their socioeconomic positions and to press for their rights with strategies that ranged from the pursuit of illicit activities to the deployment of the legal system Child Survivors of Genocide Shirley A. Heying, 2022-06-27 Child Survivors of Genocide Trauma Resilience and Identity in Guatemala presents mixed method comparative ethnographic research conducted with orphaned child survivors who are now adults These survivors were orphaned during Guatemala's thirty six year internal armed conflict and particularly during the heightened period of genocide from 1978 to 1983 referred to as la violencia Raised for the majority of their childhoods in a family style permanent residential home in the highlands region the author examines the long term consequences that these individuals have faced not only from grieving the loss of their parents and family members but also because of their orphan status While they suffer from lasting trauma these child survivors have become resilient well adapted adults with a strong internalized sense of ethnic identity They also engage in creative and transformative practices regarding ethnic identity and belonging that have contributed to their abilities to adapt to their life circumstances in positive constructive ways and have expanded what it means to be Maya Indigenous Guatemalans today Child survivors experiences offer inspiration justify expanded research with child survivors as their own distinct survivor group and warrant reconsideration of in country residential care when other forms of loving nurturing in country care are unavailable

LeCount, 2017-03-01 The Only True People is a timely and rigorous examination of ethnicity among the ancient and modern Maya focusing on ethnogenesis and exploring the complexities of Maya identity how it developed where and when it emerged and why it continues to change over time In the volume a multidisciplinary group of well known scholars including archaeologists linguists ethnographers ethnohistorians and epigraphers investigate ethnicity and other forms of group identity at a number of Maya sites and places from the northern reaches of the Yucatan to the Southern Periphery and across different time periods from the Classic period to the modern day Each contribution challenges the notion of ethnically homogenous Maya peoples for their region and chronology and explores how their work contributes to the definition of ethnicity for ancient Maya society Contributors confront some of the most difficult theoretical debates concerning identity in the literature today how different ethnic groups define themselves in relation to others under what circumstances ethnicity is marked by overt expressions of group membership and when it is hidden from view and the processes that transform ethnic identities and their expressions By addressing the social constructs and conditions behind Maya ethnicity both past and present The Only True People contributes to the understanding of ethnicity as a complex set of relationships among people who lived in real and imagined communities as well as among people separated by social boundaries The volume will be a key resource for Mayanists and will be of interest to students and scholars of ethnography anthropology and cultural studies as well Contributors McCale Ashenbrener Ellen E Bell Marcello A Canuto Juan Castillo Cocom David A Freidel Wolfgang Gabbert Stanley P Guente Jonathan Hill Charles Andrew Hofling Martha J Macri Damien B Marken Matthew Restall Timoteo Rodriguez Mathew C Samson Edward Schortman Rebecca Storey
