Real-Self Expression Exploring the Dimensionalities of Who We Are From the Authors of Letting Go and Taking the Chance to be Real Sherron Lewis, 2020-09-29 This book is about exploring the dimensionalities of who we are as we strive to communicate the deeper aspects of our being Giving creative voice to real self expression requires our establishing true communication with a deeper consciousness within us a turning inward to capture and seize the thoughts experiences emotions and myriad of memories that reside inside our mind to push beyond the limitation of words and to stand in the spaces between what may seem to be inharmonious aspects of our self to find synchrony This is the gift of our psychic symphony The only question is one of what we will compose Sherron Lewis and Shelley Stokes The authors Shelley Stokes Ph D and Sherron Lewis LMFT have been pursuing a conceptual clinical and experiential exploration of the many dimensions and phenomena contained in the human struggles inherent in knowing being expressing and living as an expression of SELF that is more REAL and less a manifestation of distorting inhibiting fear inducing and submissiveness to accommodate to the perceived demands and expectations of external forces and emotionally important relationships In this their latest effort in this endeavor they continue to employ a methodology that includes clinical theoretical formulations neuropsychological findings poetic and philosophical offerings spiritual references clinical therapeutic vignettes and personal reflections Throughout their writings Lewis and Stokes creatively share aspects of their own personal explorations and reflections on their journeys to greater self authenticity and freedom of expressions of the self In fact it is through their use of personal self disclosures that they offer the reader a form of interpersonal experiential intimacy in teaching and encouraging the same in the reader's journey of self discovering and expression thus making accessible to the reader especially the non clinical professionals a greater access to integrated knowing through concepts emotions reflections and experiences Through this unique approach the authors engage in a powerful means of communication by inviting the reader to personally engage in the demanding complex exciting energizing and releasing effort to get beyond habitual ways of being in finding creating and expressing that which has been waiting to be brought to greater fruition in REAL SELF expression

Errol F. Leifer PhD ABPP ABN FABN Sherron Lewis is a licensed marriage and family therapist in private practice in Northern California. She specializes in individual and interpersonal conflict and personal development. Her theoretical orientation is a blend of psychodynamic attachment and family systems theories. She has enjoyed conducting many workshops on a variety of topics relating to parenting shame and real self expression. The focal areas of her practice are individual couples and family therapy, multilevel intervention and clinical consultation. She also has enjoyed being a freelance artist for the past thirty-five years.

Shelley Stokes is a clinical psychologist in private practice in Northern California. He received his certification in psychoanalytic psychotherapy from the Masterson Institute in 1994 and has had a long-standing practice treating adults and families. He has conducted many workshops and taught extensively on a variety of topics related to understanding and treating disorders of the self. In addition to coauthoring three recent books with Sherron, his other writings have included Disorders of the Self: Advances in Diagnosis and Treatment of Borderline Personality Organization, Non-Pathologic Object Use in the Process of Therapeutic Change, Winnicott Revisited, and The Culturally Different Patient in Psychoanalytic Psychotherapy.

The Real Self James F. Masterson, M.D., 2013-08-21 First Published in 1985. This informative volume examines the clinical research linking normal separation-individuation with object relations theory and developmental psychopathology. It focuses on the core problem: the lack of a concept of the self integrated with object relations theory. By adding a theory of the self to object relations theory, the book both enlarges and more acutely focuses the therapeutic perspective, thereby enhancing work with patients. It also further enables therapists to clarify their own real selves. Dr. Masterson's thesis is that for the real self to finally emerge from the symbiotic union and assume its full capacities, identification, acknowledgment, and support are required from the mother and father in early development and from the therapist in psychotherapy. Dr. Masterson describes and illustrates the therapeutic technique of communicative matching and provides the necessary acknowledgment while maintaining therapeutic neutrality.

Part I reviews psychoanalytic theory of the ego and the emerging real self, its structure, function, development, and its psychopathology and treatment. Part II explores the relationship between maternal libidinal acknowledgment and the development of the real self by a cross-cultural comparison of child raising in Japan, Israel, and the United States. It then describes the influence of social and cultural factors on the functioning of the real self in the United States. Part III, on Creativity and the Real Self, draws upon fairy tales, Jean-Paul Sartre, Edvard Munch, and the life and work of the novelist Thomas Wolfe to show how for some artists, creativity becomes a crucial vehicle in their search to establish a real self. This section illuminates the nature of personal and artistic creativity and describes how a professional interest in the functioning of the real self leads inevitably to an interest in the ultimate of self-expression: creativity. Of special interest are the numerous case illustrations drawn from Masterson's extensive clinical work.

showing how acknowledgment and support enable the real self to fully emerge from the symbiotic union and to assume its full capacities

Die Heldenreise im Film Joachim Hammann, 2007

Sartre and Psychoanalysis Betty Cannon, 1991 Betty Cannon is the first to explore the implications of Sartrean philosophy for the Freudian psychoanalytic tradition Drawing upon Sartre's work as well as her own experiences as a practicing therapist she shows that Sartre was a fellow traveler who appreciated Freud's psychoanalytic achievements but rebelled against the determinism of his metatheory The mind Sartre argued cannot be reduced to a collection of drives and structures nor is it enslaved to its past as Freud's work suggested Sartre advocated an existentialist psychoanalysis based on human freedom and the self's ability to reshape its own meaning and value Through the Sartrean approach Cannon offers a resolution to the crisis in psychoanalytic metatheory created by the current emphasis on relational needs By comparing Sartre with Freud and influential post Freudians like Melanie Klein Otto Kernber Margaret Mahler D W Winnicott Heinz Kohut Harry Stack Sullivan and Jacques Lacan she demonstrates why the Sartrean model transcends the limitations of traditional Freudian metatheory In the process she adds a new dimension to our understanding of Sartre and his place in twentieth century philosophy
