Recent Social Trends In France 1960 1990:

Recent Social Trends in France, 1960-1990 Michel Forsé, International Research Group on the Comparative Charting of Social Change in Advanced Industrial Societies, 1993 Over the three decades from 1960 to 1990 French society underwent a spectacular transformation due to the baby boom which was particularly broad based and prolonged in France and caused the population to climb by a full one third At the same time the French economy expanded and the pace of modernization picked up with the result that the wealth of the French quadrupled in a single generation The turning point between the reconstruction and development period and the period of profound social change appears to have been 1965 The baby boom was over by then and the production system was shifting in orientation No longer dominated by the growth of basic industries production was now starting to focus on consumer goods and services

Recent Social Trends in France, 1960-1990 Michel Forsé, Jean-Pierre Jaslin, 1993-04-29 A prominent feature of the social revolution in France has been the decline of the great national institutions the Republic the Army the church and the schools which are losing their symbolic value and are no longer the targets of ideological disputes As a result there is a growing basic consensus among the French people At the same time the French have developed a new interest in managing local problems due to the decentralization law which has led to the establishment of many voluntary associations Changes in family life following the revolution of 1968 have led to greater instability among couples but at the same time have strengthened the kinship system resulting in increased life expectancy The customs of the French have also changed The French education system originally based on authority and regulations is now making increasing use of experimentation and negotiation As a result the attitude of the French towards authority has totally changed and the French have learned to negotiate and cooperate among themselves All these changes can be interpreted as progressive moves toward liberty equality and individualism There is little danger of social instability since French society remains in remarkably robust health

Values and Attitudes across Nations and Time Masamichi Sasaki, 2021-11-15 Values and Attitudes across Nations and Time contributes to an ever growing body of work focussing on the elucidation of variations in values and attitudes throughout the world not only what they actually are but also strategies for their detection description and classification Researchers in the field seek to identify both similarities and differences In this work quantitative and qualitative views and methods are explored by nine well known authors Masamichi Sasaki current President of the International Institute of Sociology Theodore Caplow of the University of Virginia Mattei Dogan of the National Center of Scientific Research Paris S N Eisenstadt of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem Chikio Hayashi of the Institute of Statistical Mathematics Tokyo Geert Hofstede of the University of Limburg at Maastricht in The Netherlands Alex Inkeles of Stanford University P Herbert Leiderman of the Stanford University Medical School Robert M Marsh of Brown University and Carmi Schooler of the National Institute of Mental Health Bethesda USA

Leviathan Transformed Theodore Caplow, 2002-01-16 The authors using these goals as a checklist found that each of the seven states performs well in some areas and badly in others They discovered that all states approached these goals in a style shaped by their own history and in particular by how they have been affected by the troubles of the twentieth century Their investigations offer a new informative way of looking at these nation states and detail the social and political conditions in each state Contributors include Theodore Caplow Salustiano Del Campo Royal Academy of Political and Social Science Madrid Nikolai Genov Bulgaria Academy of Sciences Karl Otto Hondrich Goethe University Simon Langlois Universit de Laval Alberto Martinelli University of Milan and Henri Mendras OFCE Paris
