Playing On The Playground:

Playing on the Playground Dorothy Chlad, 1987 Jackie and her friends play at the playground always obeying the safety rules Reports of Proceedings ... Boston (Mass.). City Council, 1898 Play Behavior on a Playground Designed for Upper Elementary Children Joe L. Frost, John A. Sutterby, Betty Frost, 2006 This was an investigation of the comparative qualities of various types of playground equipment the nature of play and the types of forms of play observed among fourth and fifth grade children Children were observed weekly during a summer school session and the following fall session playing on a playground especially designed for upper elementary school children 4th and 5th grades Researchers served as participant observers preparing rich descriptions of children's play and identifying emergent themes through interpretative analysis Researchers also conducted group interviews with the children to clarify questions and to gather additional information In addition weekly journals for children's responses to researcher's questions were collected to extend insight into the children's perspectives on play and play materials and equipment Multiple Perspectives on Play in Early Childhood Education Olivia N. Saracho, Bernard Spodek, 1998-01-15 Play has been part of early childhood programs since the initial kindergarten developed by Friedrich Froebel more than one hundred and fifty years ago While research shows that most teachers value children's play they often do not know how to guide that play to make it more educational Too often in reflecting the value of child initiated activities teachers set the stage for children's play observe it but hesitate to intervene in that play They may fear that to intervene is to create a developmentally inappropriate set of educational practices However the lack of intervention may limit the educational outcomes of play Meanwhile a large body of research exists on different forms of children's play in educational settings that could inform teachers of young children and help them to improve their practice and support more educational play Saracho and Spodek bring together much of that research in an accessible volume for early childhood teachers and teacher educators Psychological Monographs, 1933 Includes music Recreation, 1937
