Death and the Plowman or, The Bohemian Plowman Johannes von Saaz,2020-05-01 This dialogue about death from the year 1400 has no peer in early German Renaissance literature Ernest Kirrman presents an English translation of the German classic as well as a preface by Alois Bernt giving an introduction to the context and significance of the work The text is accompanied by five woodcuts reproduced from the earliest known printed version of the German original

The Court of Richard II and Bohemian Culture Alfred Thomas,2020 First detailed exploration of the role played by Bohemian tradition and customs on the court of Richard II

Anne's Bohemia Alfred Thomas,1998 Ten chapters examine aspects of medieval Czech literature with particular emphasis on women readers and subjects and the influence of the church Individual manuscripts examined include The Dalimil Chronicle The Ointment Seller The Legend of Saint Procopius The Life of St Catherine The New Council and The Weaver The Wycliffite Woman and The Dispute between Prague and Kutn Hora

Wounded Knights Alfred Thomas,2025-11-07 This broad ranging book draws on Freudian and post Freudian theory to offer a new and original perspective on courtly love from its origins in eleventh century Occitania to its transformation into conflicting chivalric and courtly discourses in the later Middle Ages Comparative and transnational in scope it explores the role of masculinity and violence in the romance love lyric and saints lives written in French English German and Czech between 1200 and 1400 Whereas conventional studies of medieval courtly love have emphasized the positive and idealistic relationship between the knight and the lady this book highlights the dark side of medieval masculinity and how displaced male violence toward women and male masochism in these texts are transfigured into more explicit violence in modern horror films

Writing Plague Alfred Thomas,2022-04-22 Writing Plague Language and Violence from the Black Death to COVID 19 brings a holistic and comparative perspective to plague writing from the later Middle Ages to the twenty first century It argues that while the human hardware has changed enormously between the medieval past and the present urbanization technology mass warfare and advances in medical science the human software emotional and psychological reactions to the shock of pandemic has remained remarkably similar across time Through close readings of works by medieval writers like Guillaume de Machaut Giovanni Boccaccio and Geoffrey Chaucer in the fourteenth century select plays by Shakespeare and modern plague fiction and film Alfred Thomas convincingly demonstrates psychological continuities between the Black Death and COVID 19 In showing how in times of plague human beings repress their fears and fantasies and displace them onto the threatening other Thomas highlights the danger of scapegoating vulnerable minority groups such as Asian Americans and Jews in today s America This wide ranging study will thus be of interest not only to medievalists but also to students of modernity as well as the general reader
