Realism Writing Disfiguration:

Realism, Writing, Disfiguration Michael Fried, 1987 A highly original and gripping account of the works of Eakins and Crane That remarkable combination of close reading and close viewing which Fried uniquely commands is brought to bear on the problematic nature of the making of images of texts and of the self in nineteenth century America Svetlana Alpers University of California Berkeley An extraordinary achievement of scholarship and critical analysis It is a book distinguished not only for its brilliance but for its courage its grace and wit its readiness to test its arguments in tough minded ways and its capacity to meet the challenge superbly This is a landmark in American cultural and intellectual studies Sacvan Bercovitch Harvard University

The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Realism Keith Newlin, 2019-08-01 The scholarship devoted to American literary realism has long wrestled with problems of definition is realism a genre with a particular form content and technique Is it a style with a distinctive artistic arrangement of words characters and description Or is it a period usually placed as occurring after the Civil War and concluding somewhere around the onset of World War I This volume aims to widen the scope of study beyond mere definition however by expanding the boundaries of the subject through essays that reconsider and enlarge upon such questions The Oxford Handbook of American Literary Realism aims to take stock of the scholarly work in the area and map out paths for future directions of study The Handbook offers 35 vibrant and original essays of new interpretations of the artistic and political challenges of representing life It is the first book to treat the subject topically and thematically in wide scope with essays that draw upon recent scholarship in literary and cultural studies to offer an authoritative and in depth reassessment of major and minor figures and the contexts that shaped their work Contributors here tease out the workings of a particular concept through a variety of authors and their cultural contexts A set of essays explores realism s genesis and its connection to previous and subsequent movements Others examine the inclusiveness of representation the circulation of texts and the aesthetic representation of science time space and the subjects of medicine the New Woman and the middle class Still others trace the connection to other arts poetry drama illustration photography painting and film and to pedagogic issues in the teaching of realism As a whole this volume forges exciting new paths in the study of realism and writers unending labor to represent life accurately

Realist Ecstasy Lindsay V. Reckson, 2020-01-28 Honorable Mention Barnard Hewitt Award from the American Society for Theater Research Explores the intersection and history of American literary realism and the performance of spiritual and racial embodiment Recovering a series of ecstatic performances in late nineteenth and early twentieth century American realism Realist Ecstasy travels from camp meetings to Native American ghost dances to storefront church revivals to explore realism s relationship to spiritual experience In her approach to realism as both an unruly archive of performance and a wide ranging repertoire of media practices including literature photography audio recording and early film Lindsay V Reckson argues that the real was repetitively enacted and reenacted through bodily practice Realist Ecstasy demonstrates how the realist imagining of possessed bodies helped construct and naturalize racial difference while excavating the complex shifting and dynamic possibilities embedded in ecstatic performance its production of new and immanent forms of being beside Across her readings of Stephen Crane James Weldon Johnson and Nella Larsen among others Reckson triangulates secularism realism and racial formation in the post Reconstruction moment Realist Ecstasy shows how post Reconstruction realist texts mobilized gestures especially the gestures associated with religious ecstasy to racialize secularism itself Reckson offers us a distinctly new vision of American realism as a performative practice a sustained account of how performance lives in and through literary archives and a rich sense of how closely secularization and racialization were linked in Jim Crow America Radio Corpse Daniel Tiffany,1995 Focusing on the necrophilic dimension of Pound s poetry and the inflections of materiality enabled by the modernist image Tiffany finds a continuum between Decadent practice and the avant garde between the image s prehistory and its political afterlife between the corpse language of Victorian poetry and a conception of the radioactive image First Things Mary Jacobus,2020-04-03 In First Things Mary Jacobus combines close readings with theoretical concerns in an examination of the many forms taken by the mythic or phantasmic mother in literary psychoanalytic and artistic representations She carefully explores the ways in which the maternal imaginary informs both unconscious processes and signifying practices at all levels Her fierce analysis of specific texts and paintings raises questions about the the symbolic and biological maternal body and how they relate to each other in literary and psychoanalytic terms The invocation of writings by Kleist Wollstonecraft Mary Shelley Malthus and de Sade along with analysis of French revolutionary iconography and Realist and Impressionist paintings by Eakins and Morisot make this wide ranging text a truly interdisciplinary study First Things sees literary theory and psychoanalysis as mutually illuminating practices The work of Freud Klein Kristeva and Bion shape an inquiry into such topics as population discourse surrogate motherhood AIDS mastectomy and psychoanalysis itself In addition Jacobus elaborates on Freud s oedipal preconceptions Klein s missing theory of signs memory melancholia narcissism and maternal reverie Realism, Writing, and Disfiguration in Thomas Eakins's Gross Clinic, with a Postscript on Stephen Crane's Upturned Faces Michael Fried,1985 Zwischen Romantik, Naturalismus und Moderne Klaus-Dieter Gross,1992 Wie pr gt eine Zeit ihre Kunst ber die Grenzen k nstlerischer Medien hinweg Die vorliegende Arbeit untersucht diese Fragestellung anhand exemplarischer Romane und Gem lde des amerikanischen Realismus der Zwischenkriegszeit Sie unterscheidet drei Hauptgruppen von Werken Diese entsprechen weltanschaulichen Grundstr mungen und spiegeln unterschiedliche Herangehensweisen an die k nstlerische Darstellung sozialer Realit t Innerhalb dieser Trends sind Entsprechungen beider Medien in inhaltlicher struktureller und formaler Hinsicht belegbar Displacing Orientalism Alan C.
