Reality and Evangelical Theology Thomas F. Torrance, 2003-03-03 T F Torrance is widely recognized as one of our most important twentieth century theologians And scholars of Torrance suggest Reality Scientific Theology is one of his most accessible works Torrance s insights on Christian epistemology are remarkably relevant in light of recent discussions on realism and antirealism in philosophy and theology Torrance brilliantly sets forth no naive or even critical realism but rather an evangelical realism knowledge grounded in the revelation of God in Jesus Christ He not only constructively argues the case for an evangelical realism but compares and contrasts theological knowledge with natural scientific knowledge and shows how the Bible can function authoritatively in a fragmented church This edition of Reality and Evangelical Theology includes an in depth foreword that contextualizes Torrance s seminal theological work in light of recent debates over postmodern and postcritical hermeneutics to Scripture It will handsomely repay engagement or reengagement by theologians philosophers students and thoughtful pastors

An Introduction to Theology John R. Higgins, Michael L. Dusing, Frank D. Tallman, 1993 Reality and Scientific Theology Thomas F. Torrance, 2001-11-28 In this book the author argues for a rigorous scientific theology under the double constraint of the reality of God and the reality of the world of space and time Careful attention is given to the common commitment of theological and natural science to objective knowledge and the deeply natural relation between knowledge of God the Creator and knowledge of the world he has made Stress is laid upon the stratified structure of theology and the need for a radical simplification and unification of Christian doctrine Is theology the science of God and is it concerned with objective knowledge like natural science Is there a natural theology and how is it related to knowledge of God through divine relation How is the community of faith within which dogmatic theology arises related to the social coefficient of scientific inquiry What is the place of mysticism and of art in theology Does theology have a special notion of truth and does it have its own inner logic and structure These are some of the main questions which this book seeks to answer

Christiane Alpers discusses the contribution and role Christian theology plays in developing of the democratic life in post Christendom societies She discusses the three major approaches to this debate public theology Radical Orthodoxy and post liberal Protestantism in order to illustrate the shared assumption that such an enhancement should be understood in terms of solving existing political problems The volume builds on and combines public theology s aspiration to craft a non triumphant political theology fit for a post Christendom context Radical Orthodoxy s hesitancy to embrace secularism as neutral centre for present democracies as well as post liberalism s Christocentric outlook Alpers engages with a wide variety of thinkers such as John Milbank Graham Ward John Howard Yoder Kathryn Tanner and Edward Schillebeeckx to suggest that a political theology in the post Christendom context could build on the faith that Christ alone has redeemed the whole world

Getting Real Gary Tyra,2018-02-08 Some reputable sociological research indicates that a surprising number of evangelical churchgoers are living out a version of the Christian life that s more informed by the values of the surrounding culture than by the discipleship teachings of Jesus and his apostles Viewing the cause of this disturbing trend in the church to be a discipleship deficit that s exacerbated by a pneumatological deficit Gary Tyra has written a book that addresses both In this work Tyra encourages evangelical Christians of all stripes to become more fully aware of the tremendous difference it makes when the Holy Spirit is experienced in ways that are real and existentially impactful rather than merely theoretical conceptual and or ritualistic Intended to be read by church leaders as well as by students in Christian colleges and seminaries the message here is that the cure for the ministry malady currently confronting us is the recovery of a robust fully Trinitarian doctrine of the Spirit A pneumatological realism says Tyra combined with an understanding of just how important a spiritual moral and missional faithfulness is to a genuine Christian discipleship can revitalize the lives of individual Christians and churches making it possible for them to reach their post Christian peers for Christ
