The Metaphysics of Self-realisation and Freedom Colin Tyler, 2017-03-22 This first part of Colin Tyler's new critical assessment of the social and political thought of T H Green 1836-1882 explores the grounding that Green gives to liberal socialism. Tyler shows how for Green ultimately personal self-realisation and freedom stem from the innate human drive to construct a bedrock of fundamental values and commitments that can define and give direction to the individual's most valuable potentials and talents. This book is not only a significant contribution to British idealist scholarship. It highlights also the enduring philosophical and ethical resources of a social democratic tradition that remains one of the world's most important social and political movements and not least across Britain, Europe, North America, India, and Australia. Dr Colin Tyler is Reader in Politics at the University of Hull and joint convenor of the Centre for British Idealism.

Civil Society, Capitalism and the State Colin Tyler, 2012-11-30 Civil Society Capitalism and the State presents a critical reconstruction of the social and political facets of Thomas Hill Green's liberal socialism. It explores the complex relationships Green sees between human nature, personal freedom, the common good, rights, and the state. It explores Green's analysis of free exchange, his critique of capitalism, and his defence of trade union activity and the cooperative movement. It establishes that Green gives only grudging support to welfarism, which he saw as a conservative mechanism in effect, if not conscious design. It is shown that he believes state provision of welfare to be justified only to the extent that peasants and the proletariat lack a culture and institutions which enable them to assert themselves against abusive landlords and capitalists. Ultimately, it is shown that Green's guiding ideal is the creation of a eudaimonically enriching kingdom of ends which favours the creation of a dynamic and free society driven by mass participation through decentralised social and political institutions. This book builds on Colin Tyler's The Metaphysics of Self-realisation and Freedom 2010, although it can also be read as a freestanding work.
