Poems, 1992 The Poem I Turn To Jason Shinder, Lili Taylor, Michael O'Keefe, 2008 This anthology of classic and modern poetry features works selected and read by celebrated American movie actors and directors Collected Poems of Mark Strand Mark Strand, 2014-09-30 Longlisted for the 2014 National Book Award Gathered here is a half century's magnificent work by the former poet laureate of the United States and Pulitzer Prize winner whose haunting and exemplary style has influenced an entire generation of American poets Beginning with the limited edition volume Sleeping with One Eye Open published in 1964 Mark Strand was hailed as a poet of piercing originality and elegance and in the ensuing decades he has not swerved from his vision of how a poem should be shaped and what it should deliver As he entered the middle period of his career with volumes such as The Continuous Life 1990 Strand was already well known for his ability to capture the subtle music of consciousness and for creating painterly physical landscapes that could answer to the inner self And here the dark infinitive to feel Which would endure and have the earth be still And the star strewn night pour down the mountains Into the hissing fields and silent towns In his later work from Blizzard of One 1998 which won the Pulitzer Prize through the sly provocative riddles of his recent Almost Invisible 2012 Strand has delighted in reminding us that there is no poet quite like him for a dose of dark wit that turns out to be deep wisdom and self deprecation He has given voice to our collective imagination with a grandeur and comic honesty worthy of his great Knopf forebear Wallace Stevens With this volume we celebrate his canonical work Self-Portrait with Dogwood Christopher Merrill, 2017-01-16 In the course of researching dogwood trees beloved poet and essayist Christopher Merrill realized that a number of formative moments in his life had some connection to the tree named according to one writer because its fruit was not fit for a dog As he approached his sixtieth birthday Merrill began to compose a self portrait alongside this tree whose lifespan is comparable to a human's and that from an early age he's regarded as a talisman Dogwoods have never been far from Merrill's view at significant moments throughout his life helping to shape his understanding of place in the great chain of being entwined in his experience is the conviction that our relationship to the natural world is central to our walk in the sun The feeling of a connection to nature has become more acute as his life has taken him to distant corners of the earth often to war zones where he has witnessed not only humankind's propensity for violence and evil but also the enduring power of connections that can be forged across languages borders and politics Dogwoods teach us persistence humility and wonder Self Portrait with Dogwood is no ordinary memoir but rather the work of a traveler who has crisscrossed the country and the globe in search of ways to make sense of his time here Merrill provides new ways of thinking about personal history the environment politics faith and the power of the written word In his descriptions of places far and near many outside of the average American's purview a besieged city in Bosnia a hidden path in a Taiwanese park Tolstoy's country house in Russia a castle in Slovakia a blossoming dogwood at daybreak in Seattle the reader's understanding of the world will flourish as well Hopper Mark Strand, 2011-11-29 Now in rich color thirty of American painter Edward Hopper's masterpieces with critiques from acclaimed poet Mark Strand Strand deftly illuminates the work of the frequently misunderstood American painter whose enigmatic paintings of gas stations storefronts cafeterias and hotel rooms number among the most powerful of our time In brief but wonderfully compelling comments accompanying each painting the elegant expressiveness of Strand's language is put to the service of Hopper's visual world The result is a singularly illuminating presentation of the work of one of America's best known artists Strand shows us how the formal elements of the paintings geometrical shapes pointing beyond the canvas light from unseen sources locate the viewer as he says in a virtual space where the influence and availability of feeling predominate An unforgettable combination of prose and painting in their highest forms this book is a must for poetry and art lovers alike
