Reception Of Virginia Woolf In Europe:

The Reception of Virginia Woolf in Europe Mary Ann Caws, Nicola Luckhurst, 2008-12-22 Comprehensive coverage of Woolf's reception across Europe with contributions from leading international critics and translators Modernism and the New Spain Gayle Rogers, 2012-10-03 How and why did a country seen as remote backwards and barely European become a pivotal site for reinventing the continent after the Great War Modernism and the New Spain argues that the Spanish problem the nation's historically troubled relationship with Europe provided an animating impulse for interwar literary modernism and for new conceptions of cosmopolitanism Drawing on works in a variety of genres Gayle Rogers reconstructs an archive of cross cultural exchanges to reveal the mutual constitution of two modernist movements one in Britain the other in Spain and stretching at key moments in between to Ireland and the Americas Several sites of transnational collaboration form the core of Rogers's innovative literary history The relationship between T S Eliot's Criterion and Jos Ortega y Gasset's Revista de Occidente shows how the two journals joined to promote a cosmopolitan agenda A similar case of kindred spirits appears with the 1922 publication of Joyce's Ulysses The novel's forward thinking sentiments on race and nation resonated powerfully within Spain where a generation of writers searched for non statist forms through which they might express a new European Hispanicity These cultural ties between the Anglo Irish and Spanish speaking worlds increased with the outbreak of civil war in 1936 Rogers explores the connections between fighting Spanish fascism and dismantling the English patriarchal system in Virginia Woolf's Three Guineas along with the international anti fascist poetic community formed by Stephen Spender Manuel Altolaguirre and others as they sought to establish Federico Garc a Lorca as an apolitical Spanish European poet Mining a rich array of sources that includes novels periodicals biographies translations and poetry in English and in Spanish Modernism and the New Spain adds a vital new international perspective to modernist studies revealing how writers created alliances that unified local and international reforms to reinvent Europe not in the London Paris Berlin nexus but in Madrid

The Reception of Walter Pater in Europe Stephen Bann, 2004-01-01 European Intertexts Patsy Stoneman, Ana María Sánchez-Arce, Angela Leighton, 2005 European Intertexts is the first fruit of an ongoing collaborative study aiming to challenge the isolationism of much critical work on English literature by exploring the interdependence of English and continental European literatures in writing by women While later volumes will deal with specific texts this introductory volume provides a descriptive framework and a theoretical basis for studies in the field Covering issues such as the role of English as a world language the definition of Europe and the current state of Translation Studies the book also surveys theories of intertextuality and demonstrates intertextual links between written and visual and film texts This book is itself pioneering in making a systematic approach to women's writings in English in the context of other European cultures Although Europe is a political reality this cultural interpenetration remains largely unexamined and these essays represent an important first step towards revealing that unexplored richness The Reception of Byron in Europe Richard A.

Cardwell, 2004 Richard Cardwell was given the Elma Dangerfield Award of the International Byron Society for the best book on Byron in 2005 06 Byron arguably was and remains the most famous and infamous English poet in the modern period in Continental Europe From Portugal in the West to Russia in the East from Scandinavia in the North to Spain in the South he inspired and provoked was adored and reviled inspired notions of freedom in subject lands and with it the growth of national idealisms which soon would re draw the map of Europe At the same time the Byronic persona incarnate in Childe Harold Manfred Lara and others was received with enthusiasm and fear as experience demonstrated that Byron's Romantic outlook was two edged thrilling and appalling in the same moment All the great writers Goethe Mickiewicz Lermontov Almeida Garret Espronceda Lamartine among many others strove to outdo imitate revise and integrate the sublime Lord into their own cultures to create new national voices and to dissent from the old order The volume explores Byron's European reception in its many guises bringing new evidence challenging old assumptions and offering fresh perspectives on the protean impact of Lord Byron on the Continent This book consists of two volumes Series Editor Dr Elinor Shaffer FBA Institute of Germanic Romance Studies School of Advanced Study University of London Contributors Richard A Cardwell University of Nottingham UK Joanne Wilkes University of Auckland NZ Peter Cochran Cambridge UK Ernest Gidey University of Lausanne Switzerland Edoardo Zuccato IULM University Milan Giovanni Iamartino University of Milan Italy Derek Flitter University of Birmingham UK Maria Leonor Machado de Sousa University of Lisbon Portugal Mihaela Anghelescu Irimia University of Bucharest Romania Frank Erik Pointner University of Duisburg Essen Germany Achim Geisenhansl University of Duisburg Essen Germany Theo D haen Leiden University The Netherlands Martin Prochazka Charles University Prague Czech Republic Mirosława Modrzejewska University of Gdansk Poland Orsolya Rakai Budapest Hungary Nina Diakonova St Petersburg Russia Vitana Kostadinova Plovdiv University Bulgaria Jrgen E Nielsen Copenhagen Denmark Bjorn Tysdahl University of Oslo Norway Ingrid Elam Sweden Anahit Bekaryan Institute of Fine Arts of the National Academy of Sciences of the Republic of Armenia Innes Merabishvili State University of Tbilisi Georgia Litsa Trayiannoudi Aristotle University of Thessaloniki Greece Massimiliano Demata Mansfield College Oxford UK

Voyages Out, Voyages Home Jane de Gay, Marion Dell, 2018-09-15 The Eleventh Annual Conference on Virginia Woolf was the first to be held outside the United States This voyage across the Atlantic was the stimulus for an exploration of themes of voyaging in Woolf's works from her interests in travel and cross cultural encounters to her imaginative voyages between texts and genres and the subsequent voyages her texts have made into the work of others Published nine years after the conference this selection of papers by international scholars fills a gap in the chronicles of the Woolf conference For this reason several papers feature an Afterword outlining developments in research since 2001 and the book also includes a Bibliography of Publications Arising from the Conference facilitating access to research presented at Bangor but published elsewhere Another special feature of the volume is the tribute to one of the keynote speakers Julia Briggs who died in 2007 in which Beth Rigel Daugherty communicates the gratitude of the scholarly community for Julia's many contributions to Woolf studies. This welcome publication is a fitting record of our collective voyage as Woolf scholars. Britische Literatur in der DDR Barbara Korte, 2008. Women's Writing in Western Europe Adalgisa Giorgio, Julia Waters, 2007. Women's writing has in recent decades been one of the most exciting and productive areas of literary creativity and critical analysis. Thirty years on from the initial spectacular blossoming of women's writing and from pioneering critical projects to re-construct a female literary tradition, Women's Writing in Western Europe: Gender, Generation and Legacy is the first study to investigate the legacy of this earlier generation of writers' texts and theories for contemporary women writers from across western Europe. This important and timely book brings together original analyses by different generations of critics from around the globe, from internationally renowned feminist scholars to promising doctoral students. Their sophisticated studies uncover a complex web of explicit and implicit intertextual links between contemporary writers and such iconic figures as Aleramo, Beauvoir, Colette, Cixous, Duras, Irigaray, Kristeva, Morante, Morgner, Wolf and Woolf, so attesting to the existence of a truly international women's culture across ever more fluid national borders. Women's Writing in Western Europe is a major intervention in the field of feminist literary criticism which offers new comparative understandings of such key theoretical concepts as intertextuality, intergenerational relations, gender identity and legacy. Covering an enormous range of writers and national traditions, Women's Writing in Western Europe: Gender, Generation and Legacy attests to the vibrancy and the currency of feminist criticism and theory in the new Europe. These essays give us new paradigms to think and read with in the future. Professor Marianne Hirsch, Columbia University, New York. 'Thirty years after the creative outburst of women's writing and feminist theory of the early 1970s, can we still speak of a women's tradition of writing of gender and generation of the iconic role of the mother figure? This dense and wide-ranging collection of essays engages with the dynamics of legacy and conflict of recognition and denial to map out some of the many complex strands and relationships marking the textual relations of women's writing across time and geographic boundaries. No simple tradition of women's writing emerges, but the powerful hold exerted by some of the most canonical writers, Beauvoir, Woolf, Cixous, Irigaray, Kristeva, Rich and the evidence of the construction of new relationships between and across texts by women, points to a continuing network of transmission in which women's texts are enmeshed. This is an important collection and a large readership will be grateful for this probing of issues which are at the heart of the reading of women's writing.'
