Education for Sustainable Development in the Postcolonial World Leon Tikly, 2019-12-06 Education for Sustainable Development ESD lies at the heart of global regional and national policy agendas with the goal of achieving socially and environmentally just development through the provision of inclusive equitable quality education for all Realising this potential on the African continent however calls for radical transformation of policy and practice Developing a transformative agenda requires taking account of the learning crisis in schools the inequitable access to a good quality education the historical role of education and training in supporting unsustainable development and the enormous challenges involved in complex system change In the African continent sustainable development entails eradicating poverty and inequality supporting economically sustainable livelihoods within planetary boundaries and averting environmental catastrophe as well as dealing with health pandemics and security threats In addressing these challenges the book explores the meaning of ESD for Africa in the context of the postcolonial condition critically discusses the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs as well as regional development agendas draws on a wealth of research evidence and examples from across the continent engages with contemporary debates about the skills competencies and capabilities required for sustainable development including decolonising the curriculum and transforming teaching and learning relationships sets out a transformative agenda for policy makers practitioners NGOs social movements and other stakeholders based on principles of social and environmental justice Education for Sustainable Development in the Postcolonial World is an essential read for anyone with an interest in education and socially and environmentally just development in Africa

Foundations of Multiliteracies Michèle Anstey, Geoff Bull, 2018-05-03 Using the concept of multiliteracies and multimodality this book provides foundation knowledge about the new and continuously changing literacies of the 21st century It details the five semiotic systems linguistic visual auditory gestural and spatial and how they contribute to the reading and writing of increasingly complex and dynamic texts that are delivered by live paper or digital technologies One of the main tenets of the book is that social cultural and technological developments will continue to give rise to changing literate practices around texts and communication requiring a rethinking of classroom practices that are employed in the teaching of literacy Therefore the role of talk together with traditional lesson structures is examined and the concept of dialogic talk is introduced as a way of moving towards an effective pedagogy for the teaching and learning of multiliteracies and multimodality The book also demonstrates that children s literature can provide a bridge between old and new literacies and be an effective vehicle for introducing the five semiotic systems to all age groups Comprehensive and accessible this book addresses the issue of translating complex theories research and concepts into effective practice by providing the reader with four avenues for reflecting upon and implementing the ideas it contains Reflection Strategies that enable the reader to gauge their understanding of key concepts Theory into Practice tasks that enable the trialling of specific theoretical concepts in the classroom Auditing instruments provide specific tasks related to assessment of student performance and evaluation of teacher pedagogy QR codes immediately link the reader to multimodal texts and further references that illustrate and enhance the concepts being developed
