Susan White

Head of Customer Experience
Charter CARE Health Partners
7 Waterman Ave
North Providence, RI 02911

Dear Susan,

As someone who recognizes Charter CARE Health Partners as the premier Health and Human Service Agency in the East Bay, I was thrilled to see an opening for a Medical Receptionist position with your company. With my 5+ years of experience as a receptionist, I am confident in my ability to provide accurate and timely communication to patients and visitors in a courteous and respectful manner for Charter CARE Health Partners.

In the job listing, you state that you're looking for a skilled receptionist to be responsible for warmly greeting clients upon arrival, creating an inviting reception area, and entering data into your record system. In my current position with Lifespan, I ran the front desk of a 10 person primary care office and acted as a liaison between physician and patient walk-ins requiring immediate appointments. I also created an automated system to update how we schedule appointments and transportation for patients. My automation process cut down on missed visits and overbooking by 40%. I'm sure this experience will result in similar results for Charter CARE Health Partners.

I am impressed with the quality of the care you provide your patients and the atmosphere you create in your offices. Being part of your team and continuing to help with this mission would be a dream opportunity for my career development.

Can we schedule a meeting or a call to discuss solutions for optimizing reception processes at Charter CARE Health Partners while retaining your client satisfaction metrics?

Thank you,

Jason V. Cross

Book Review 1 A collection of intimate interviews with people regarding the personal familial cultural and geographic factors in their working lives Inspired by Studs Terkel's Working 1974 which profiled ordinary American workers editor Skees God Among the Shakers 1998 takes the concept global Six of her 16 subjects live in the United States including a slack key guitarist in Honolulu an architect in Cincinnati and a recruiter headhunter in Tampa Florida The rest are on other continents including a coffee farmer in Nicaragua a Masai warrior in Tanzania a married couple running an eco friendly factory in India a rickshaw puller in Bangladesh and a private equity manager in Hong Kong Skees organizes the material into five sections Entrepreneurship Industry and Transportation Farming Food and Animals Finance and Technology and Music an environmental activist in American coal country a banana farmer in Uganda a college admissions counselor in Rwanda and a fringe diplomat in Tel Aviv Few books dig so deeply into life as it's actually lived with such unsparing intimacy Prose Skees's own prose is sharp clear and purposeful but outside of introductions and some notes most of the book come straight from the mouths of her subjects through first person monologue Skees breaks the chapters up into short labeled sections This is helpful for skimmers but the shortness of the individual sections gives the chapters a stop and start feeling impeding narrative momentum Originality This isn't the first book to survey workers in their own words about work nor even the first one by Skees to do so but the author has selected a fresh fascinating cross section of people to reveal truths about the world and this current moment Execution The book offers insights wisdom challenges to orthodox thinking and some arresting first person storytelling It's both eye opening and a pleasure to learn about the day to day work of a Zambian mobile money agent and to discover how that work is vital to a population outside of the banking system That said the narrators' individual voices sound somewhat similar to each other and the speakers too rarely offer up surprising or engaging anecdotes The emphasis here is strongly on the work itself and the sociopolitical context that created the opportunity for such work There's great value in capturing that but the book might prove more enticing for general audiences with a greater emphasis on voice and storytelling Booklife Publisher's Weekly
