Cape Bretoniana Beaton Institute of Cape Breton Studies,2005-01-01 Nova Scotia s Cape Breton Island is a beautiful region with a unique community whose history and ethnic composition have resulted in the evolution of a powerful sense of identity and place While outsiders may think only of the island s perennial economic woes and long economic dependence on coal mining and steel production it is also the home of a rich vibrant and distinct culture Brian Douglas Tennyson s Cape Bretoniana is the first bibliography to gather together all known publications relating to the history culture economy and politics of Cape Breton Island With more than 6000 entries it not only provides a comprehensive listing of publications and post graduate theses but also detailed annotations on the listings Each entry lists the author title place of publication publisher date of publication volume and issue number in the case of periodicals and page references followed by a brief description of the item Cape Breton has never been so thoroughly documented This bibliography will help to ensure that even in a world becoming increasingly homogenized by the forces of globalization unique cultural identities like Cape Breton s can be preserved and nurtured

Growing Civil Society Jon Van Til,2000 The third space is not independent from society s major institutions but exists in dynamic interdependence with them linking individuals in their home bases of family and community to the larger governmental and economic structures within which all citizens workers and consumers learn to seek their way in modern society BOOK JACKET Community Economic Development Eric Shragge,Michael Toye,2006 Communities have long been ahead of governments in responding to changes in the economy forging ahead with innovative grassroots projects that now make up a substantial portion of economic development initiatives Having made major gains in practice and having built local capacities through innovation Community Economic Development now stands at a crossroads In Building for Social Change Eric Shragge Michael Toye and colleagues from across the country offer a timely critical examination of CED practices and debates This book is designed for CED practitioners for others working in community based organizations and those being trained There are a growing number of post secondary programs in English Canada that educate students in CED and related fields such as regional development yet there are not many publications that provide analytical perspectives and debate The goal of this book is to describe and analyze CED practice primarily in Canada through a wide range of subjects the evolution of its definitions economic dimensions and the key elements that form its context Building for Social Change situates CED in wide political economic and social contexts rich examples of the scope and practices and some of the limits in Aboriginal communities as a tool to support women psychiatric survivor enterprises housing and worker ownerships are explored to help spur further critical discussion and debate Engraved on Our Nations Wanda Wuttunee,Fred Wien,2024-03-29 A testimony to Indigenous resilience in business Despite investments in nation building self autonomy and cultural resurgence Indigenous economic development has remained an underexplored and underestimated area of research Engraved on Our Nations overturns the discouraging deficit perspective too common in policy and academia and amplifies the largely undocumented history of successful Indigenous economic activity in Canada Following David Newhouse's overview of Indigenous economic history the authors of this collection illustrate how First Nation and Métis individuals and communities have met and overcome an array of challenges Case studies focus on First Nations from Membertou Nova Scotia to Tahltan British Columbia and Indigenous led enterprises like McDonald Brothers Electric Northwest Territories and Neechi Commons Manitoba Simultaneously celebrating Indigenous entrepreneurs and exploring concerns around sustainable development the book also asks can capitalism be Indigenized This first of its kind collection shares stories not only of entrepreneurial excellence and persistence but savvy leadership innovation and reciprocity In doing so Engraved on Our Nations provides hope to Indigenous business leaders youth and elected officials working on the front lines to improve economic conditions and achieve a good life for their communities High Plains Applied Anthropologist ,1999 The Loom of Change Paul Patterson,Susan Biagi,2003 An expansive exploration of the nature of development Patterson and Biagi expose weaknesses in the threadbare mechanisms of centralized development policy then carefully and deftly Patterson explains the complexities of the nature of development and how it may be woven by communities rather than buying it off the rack The Canadian Forum ,1998 The Nonprofit Sector and Government in a New Century Queen's University (Kingston, Ont.). School of Policy Studies,2001 The Nonprofit Sector and Government in a New Century captures the complexities and contradictions in the relationship between the nonprofit sector and government and highlights the struggles of nonprofit organizations to respond to an environment defined by increased expectations and constrained resources The Non-profit Sector in a Changing Economy ,2003 The non profit sector relates to a third system between the state and the market which has both social and economic objectives and is not bound by the redistribution of profits This publication reviews the key trends financing developments and challenges facing this growing and evolving sector in EU countries the United States Canada Mexico and Australia drawing on contributions from international experts and academics in the field of non profit sector studies Acadiensis ,1998 Activism and Social Change Eric Shragge,2003 This book connects the personal and the political to produce a sophisticated understanding of the potential of as well as barriers to local activism and community organizing Robert Fisher University of Connecticut Quill & Quire ,1998 Tourism Economics ,2007 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,1999 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Canadian Books in Print ,2001 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1998-04 Closing the Digital Divide Stewart Marshall,Wallace J. Taylor,Xinghuo Yu,2003-07-30 Successful strategies and principles for using information technology to transform regional and community economies exist and they are presented here with clarity and insight in a way that is useful to both practitioners and researchers Although the communities discussed here range far and wide from those in Russia to Australia and to Kenya any community can benefit from enhanced utilization of information and communication technologies The ways in which technology can help improve economic social cultural and political conditions are as numerous and various as the communities themselves In Central Queensland Australia community leaders have brought in a high tech expert advisory system to help them control weed infestation New Zealand and Australia have pioneered telehealth the exchange of health care information and the delivery of some services across great distances In Russia wiring a community was found to be about more than mere hardware and software vital to the process was understanding how communities provide access to information technology how authorities and volunteers can improve computer literacy among citizens and how connectivity can be extended to greater numbers of people In some areas of south Asia nongovernmental organizations have teamed up with local governments to increase access empowerment and e commerce opportunities These are but a few of the ways this volume contributes to our knowledge base about the impact of technology on economic development
