Places And Spaces:

The Places and Spaces of Fashion, 1800-2007 John Potvin, 2013-01-11 The Places and Spaces of Fashion 1800 2007 brings together art design fashion and a much neglected concern for its spatial realities The spaces and places of fashion have often been overlooked in the writing of fashion history and visual culture More often than not however these environments mitigate control inform and enhance how fashion is experienced performed consumed seen exhibited purchased appreciated and of course displayed Space as this volume attempts to illustrate is itself a representational strategy on par with and influencing the visibility and visuality of fashion Innovative and challenging the essays in this volume explore various physical and conceptual spaces moving from physical environments to the two dimensional with paintings illustrations and photographs to chart similarities differences and complex nuanced relationships between environments fashion identities and visuality The volume also navigates various sites both permanent and temporary of production circulation exhibition consumption and promotion of fashion that define meaning and knowledge about a culture or individual by providing for a bond between embodied consumers spectators and fashion objects The Places and Spaces of Fashion 1800 2007 is a compelling project with a thematic theoretical and historiographic approach that is at once both focused yet far reaching and original in its implications The volume engages with questions attending to the modern condition by seamlessly weaving interdisciplinary discussions of the visual with material culture to explore the spatial dimension s of fashion Some of the essays explore new and exciting spaces while others offer compelling revisionary analyses of relatively known sources

Public Places and Spaces Irwin Altman, Erwin H. Zube, 2012-12-06 This tenth volume in the series addresses an important topic of research design and policy in the environment and behavior field Public places and spaces include a sweeping array of settings including urban streets plazas and squares malls parks and other locales and natural settings such as aquatic environments national parks and forests and wilderness areas The importance of public settings is highlighted by difficult questions of access control and management unique needs and problems of different users including women the handicapped and various ethnic groups and the dramatic reshaping of our public environments that has occurred and will continue to occur in the foreseeable future The wide ranging scope of the topic of public places and spaces demands the attention of many disciplines and researchers designers managers and policymakers As in previous volumes in the series the authors in the present volume come from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds research and design orientations and affiliations They have backgrounds in or are affiliated with such fields as architecture geography landscape architecture natural resources psychology sociology and urban design Many more disciplines obviously contribute to our understanding and design of public places and spaces so that the contributors to this volume reflect only a sample of the possibilities and present state of knowledge about public settings

Place and Space in the Medieval World Meg Boulton, Jane Hawkes, Heidi Stoner, 2017-12-06 This book addresses the critical terminologies of place and space and their role within medieval studies in a considered and critical manner presenting a scholarly introduction written by the editors alongside thematic case studies that address a wide range of visual and textual material The chapters consider the extant visual and textual sources from the medieval period alongside contemporary scholarly discussions to examine place and space in their wider critical context and are written by specialists in a range of disciplines including art history archaeology history and literature Places and Spaces for Preschool and Primary (outdoors) Jeanne Vergeront,1988

Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space Sarah Pinto, Shelley Hannigan, Bernadette Walker-Gibbs, Emma Charlton, 2019-04-25 This book brings together researchers from different fields traditions and perspectives to examine the ways in which place and space might be unsettled Researchers from across the humanities and social sciences have been drawn to the study of place and space since the 1970s and the term unsettled has been an occasional but recurring presence in this body of scholarship Though it has been used to invoke a range of meanings from the dangerous to the liberating the term itself has rarely been at the centre of sustained examination This collection highlights the idea of the unsettled in the scholarly investigation of place and space The respective chapters offer a dialogue between a diverse and eclectic group of researchers crossing significant disciplinary and interdisciplinary boundaries in the process The purpose of the collection is to juxtapose a range of different approaches to and perspectives on the unsettling of place and space In doing so Interdisciplinary Unsettlings of Place and Space makes an important contribution and offers new insights into how scholarship and research into different fields and practices may help us re envision place and space Winterson Narrating Time and Space Margaret J.-M. Sönmez, Mine Özyurt Kılıç, 2009 In this book scholars students and aficionados of Jeanette Winterson will find ten analyses of time space and narrative in her works From her very first novel Jeanette Winterson has made her characters move in time and in space and she has always shown a sophisticated interest in narrative forms and this is the first book to focus entirely on these central concerns The writers of the essays provide different perspectives on the three subjects from postmodernism to quantum physics queer theory to genre studies and the uncanny to stylistics In its section on time and narrative the volume offers a fresh approach to Winterson's works with a concentration on autobiographical elements love desire the language of quantum physics and the queer uncanny The next section space and narrative pursues the motifs of journeys utopic spaces cyberspace and labyrinths and includes a chapter on the shorter fiction The last section which comprises essays that cover all three elements of time space and narrative equally examines these themes as they affect Winterson's representation of voices and corporeality and her use of romance narrative in the children's fiction The volume covers Winterson's major fiction with the Introduction connecting the images of huts rivers and fire gazing that are found extensively in her works to the themes of time and space and bringing the discussion up to Winterson's latest novel The Stone Gods A mixture of established and new scholars presents in this book an exciting array of the latest ideas on this respected and popular writer The Perception of Space and Matter Johnston Estep Walter, 1879
