Undoing Home Depot's Demolition New Word City, 2010-02-01 Bottom and top line To turn Home Depot around Frank Blake restocked employee morale zeroed in customer needs and focused on the core business Best of all he wasn't Bob Nardelli What can you learn from Blake's story Sell the project not the product Jump without a golden parachute And never hold yourself above your people At Home Depot the days of caviar and roses are past The CEO with the huge salary and outsized ego is gone The world's largest home improvement retail chain has slowed its once relentless pace of expansion almost to a halt It has sold its 34 Expo Design Centers 14 specialty stores and other grandiose empire building acquisitions What remains is a company with roughly 350 000 employees 2 238 stores around the world and sales of more than 71 billion annually After two years on the job Home Depot's unlikely savior is still almost anonymous enough to pose as a shopper when he visits his stores The story of how Frank Blake and his colleagues turned the company around is a tale with lessons for us all It's as if Blake had stopped an explosion in mid blast and turned it around nestling all the fragments gently back into place New Word City publishers of digital originals contributes 10 percent of its profits to literacy causes Computerworld
