Reflections Elizabeth Mary Bohjelian, 2001 Verkinah Bedrosian's fifteenth birthday started like any other day of the past years She arose at six in the morning She prayed meditated and dressed in the humble apparel sent to her from London After attending to her morning chores she joined her friends and classmates for breakfast in the dining room Meals were always taken in silence another of Miss Burgess' rules As the older girls quietly ate Verkinah observed the table where the little ones were seated It seemed like only a fortnight had passed since she and her friends were as young as these recent arrivals to the School Now Asghig and Verkinah were in charge of grooming and helping the youngsters through the formative years Armenouhi would entertain them while they became oriented to their new surroundings Verkinah also noticed that Digeen Vartouhy's hair was now completely white and her footsteps had become slow Some mornings she could barely walk Dr Haratounian had told the ailing matron Rheumatism and hardening of the arteries are part of the aging process We are not getting younger my dear woman Digeen Vartouhy was grateful that the staff empathized with her condition She continued her kitchen duties slowly However the meals were always prepared and served on time As she looked around the room Verkinah also observed an excited gleam in Asghig's eyes one that spelled urgency Was she sick She had always been the delicate one Breakfast was finally over While the two girls walked to their classrooms Asghig confided to Verkinah Grandma told me that she and Miss Burgess are planning to meet with the young Secretary to the Mayor of Constantinople Mr Sarkis Yerganian I think he wants to be introduced to me Imagine Oh Verkinah I'm so thrilled Asghig whispered The Armenian community of Constantinople knew young Sarkis Yerganian very well He had opened dialogue between the Turkish government and many a Christian family He was twenty five years old and educated in Paris Tall handsome and extremely well built Sarkis was the only offspring of a wealthy Armenian rug merchant The young man decided that he was ready to be married The young ladies in MISS BURGESS SCHOOL FOR GIRLS surmised that at a certain age their marriage would be arranged with Miss Burgess' approval So when Asghig told her friend about the conversation she had with her grandmother both girls were innocently happy and extremely excited After evening prayers Asghig and Verkinah met with Armenouhi in the reception room for a brief social period granted to the older girls Here Armenouhi heard the exciting news Armenouhi became elated She stood before them and with great dramatic flair recited passages from Romeo and Juliet She acted the scenes to perfection Verkinah and Asghig were breathless How talented and beautiful their mutual friend was Aware that their enthusiasm would be misunderstood as being silly the three girls withdrew to their rooms Verkinah could not fall asleep right away She thought about the talented Asghig who had reached her sixteenth year a month ago In two weeks Asghig would graduate Her beautiful soprano voice was known throughout the Armenian community In fact for the past year Miss Burgess had allowed Asghig to be chaperoned to the Armenian Church every Sunday morning As the soloist she was accompanied by the Church choir during the celebration of High Mass Armenians and Greeks would attend the services regularly to hear her lovely voice Aha This is where Sarkis Yerganian has seen and heard Asghig No wonder he has fallen in love with my Asghig she thought That night Verkinah experienced feelings she never had before Would she have a Prince fall in love with her too She immediately dismissed these thoughts She could not sing like Asghig She did not recite poetry like Armenouhi Her mind was always too logical She questioned everything By her standards she w
