Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times Consequently it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light optical science but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art architecture and literature Instead of its evolution this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character No individual experience of light being truer than any other

Reflections University of Wyoming. College of Agriculture, 2008 Elizabeth Bishop Carole Doreski, 1993 In poetry the constraints of language and the tension between desire and possibility constitute the problematic in which the poem occurs Approaching Elizabeth Bishop's work from the standpoint of this problematic C K Doreski's illuminating study examines Bishop's rhetorical strategies and the way they shape the formal and thematic movements of her poetry and stories Unlike other recent studies of Bishop Doreski's does not concern itself primarily with her visual imagery but rather deals with her poetry as a series of linguistic maneuverings designed to create the maximum illusion of representation while resisting the romantic devices of self revelation and solipsistic narration Though highly personal in nature Bishop's works exhibit her success in averting with formal and rhetorical dexterity the temptations of sentiment Doreski argues that Bishop takes advantage of the inadequacies of language and with a postmodern sense of limitation explores the gaps and silences narrative must bridge with the mundane the patently inadequate creating an air of emotional intimacy without committing itself to the banality of full exposure In essence she asserts the restraints of language shaped the tone tensions and even the topics of Bishop's poetry This study finds the poems and stories mutually illuminating but while moving back and forth among her various works acknowledges the intelligent ordering of the volumes Bishop published in her lifetime Persuasively arguing that restraint for Bishop is an essential element in the relationship she finds between language and life this study shows how through her poems and stories she attempts to invent a language adequate to her perception Reflections, 1987 Reflections in Literature Philip James McFarland, Sharon Breakstone, Morse Peckham, 1972 Reflections of a Naturalist Jerry R.
