Refugees Resources Reunion Australias Immigration Dilemmas:

Refugees, Resources, Reunion Robert Birrell, 1979 This book examines Australia's immigration programme with particular emphasis on refugees. It is based on papers presented at the seminar on Australia's Immigration Responsibilities Melbourne February 1979. The aim of the editors is to clarify differences of attitude in Australia towards immigration and indicate ethical and sociological premises upon which the differences are based. The book is divided into three sections: the first is based on the seminar discussions; the second further develops the issues raised in the first section; and the third deals with background issues and the views of the Government and the Opposition on policy implications. The specific chapters dealing with refugees include Australia's Immigration Policy and Refugees; Family Reunion and the Refugees Crisis; Family Reunion and Refugees and Population Immigration and the Domestic Market and Indochinese Refugees. The editors conclude that considering the current unemployment situation and the absence of proper manpower programmes there is no good case for recruiting immigrants to fill alleged gaps in the workforce. They also conclude that the system of selection of immigrants does not meet effectively any of the varying priorities. They recommend for strong humanitarian reasons giving priority to refugees and family reunion cases and in addition discontinuing the arrangement whereby New Zealand citizens have a free right of entry and settlement.

Critical Years in Immigration Freda Hawkins, 1991 With the new introduction Freda Hawkins brings Critical Years in Immigration up to date by discussing the directions taken by the Canadian and Australian governments since 1984. She also clarifies the implications of the recently announced Canadian immigration levels for 1991-95, discussing the government's reasoning and future plans.

Haven or Hell? D. Joly, 2016-07-14 This book brings together in a systematic manner three discrete areas of interest pertaining to refugees. Asylum is explored through studies on the evolution of legal instruments in Europe; the harmonisation process of European policies; and the broader spectrum of factors underpinning decisions on asylum. Reception and settlement of refugees are analysed through a comparative study of national programmes in France and Britain, and in addition a survey of local authority policies. A typology for refugees is developed and tested by a comparison between Chilean and Vietnamese associations in France and Britain.

Population and Political Theory James S. Fishkin, Robert E. Goodin, 2010-03-08 Part of the acclaimed Politics and Society series, Population and Political Theory brings together leading thinkers in the fields of philosophy, political science, economics, and social policy to address issues at the convergence of population policy and political theory. Offers a single volume systematic overview of philosophical issues relating to population. Represents a unique merging of discussions of population policy with political theory.
