Experimental Test Pilots,1963 Liberty Bell 7 Colin Burgess,2014-03-19 NASA s Mercury astronauts were seven highly skilled professional test pilots Each of them seemed to possess the strength of character and commitment necessary to overcome apparently insurmountable obstacles as the United States entered into a Cold War space race with the Soviet Union This was never more evident than on the epic suborbital MR 4 flight of Liberty Bell 7 with astronaut Virgil Gus Grissom piloting the spacecraft to a successful splashdown followed by the premature blowing of the craft s explosive hatch
After a hurried exit and struggling to stay afloat he could only watch helplessly as the recovery helicopter pilot valiantly fought a losing battle to save the sinking capsule That day NASA not only lost a spacecraft but came perilously close to losing one of its Mercury astronauts a decorated Korean fighter pilot from Indiana who might one day have soared to the highest goal of them all as the first person to set foot on the Moon For the first time many of those closest to the flight of Liberty Bell 7 and astronaut Gus Grissom offer their stories and opinions on the dramatic events of July 21 1961 and his later pioneering Gemini mission They also tell of an often controversial life cut tragically and horrifically short in a launch pad fire that

Erinn McComb,2025-06-10 The American astronaut image was informed by early Cold War ideals of masculinity that helped mold a distinctly American anti communist masculinity which appeared on the surface anyway to resolve not only an American crisis of masculinity but helped win the Cold War on an ideological and popular level This American image focused on strict gender binaries of man as the protector controlling technology and containing communism while woman was the passive actor with spaceflight technology left behind in the home waiting for the return of the astronaut husband Allowing women to fly into space would have represented a lack of individual control with spaceflight technology MERCURY
