Refashioning Futures:

Refashioning Futures David Scott, 1999-05-30 How can we best forge a theoretical practice that directly addresses the struggles of once colonized countries many of which face the collapse of both state and society in today's era of economic reform David Scott argues that recent cultural theories aimed at deconstructing Western representations of the non West have been successful to a point but that changing realities in these countries require a new approach In Refashioning Futures he proposes a strategic practice of criticism that brings the political more clearly into view in areas of the world where the very coherence of a secular modern project can no longer be taken for granted Through a series of linked essays on culture and politics in his native Jamaica and in Sri Lanka the site of his long scholarly involvement Scott examines the ways in which modernity inserted itself into and altered the lives of the colonized The institutional procedures encoded in these modern postcolonial states and their legal systems come under scrutiny as do our contemporary languages of the political Scott demonstrates that modern concepts of political representation community rights justice obligation and the common good do not apply universally and require reconsideration His ultimate goal is to describe the modern colonial past in a way that enables us to appreciate more deeply the contours of our historical present and that enlarges the possibility of reshaping it

Unterscheidungen der Religion Adrian Hermann, 2015-06-17 Which distinctions characterize the global discourse of religion Adrian Hermann proposes a twofold change of perspective in the debate about the eurocentrism of the concept of religion and the possible identification of its non Western equivalents He argues that the search for such equivalents should be replaced by an analysis of the emergence of hypothetical equivalences in historical processes of translation On the basis of a distinction between theory of religion and discourse theoretical approaches Hermann describes religion not as a phenomenon but as a global discourse Plurality and differentiation are identified as two central distinctions of religion In light of this perspective he investigates discourses of religion in the context of Buddhist modernism especially in 19th century Thailand Drawing on Niklas Luhmann's world society theory Hermann concludes the study by discussing the challenges of developing a theory of modernity in Religious Studies and the possibility of writing a global history of religion

Global Origins of the Modern Self, from Montaigne to Suzuki Avram Alpert, 2019-05-01 Explores how writers across five continents and four centuries have debated ideas about what it means to be an individual and shows that the modern self is an ongoing project of global history In Global Origins of the Modern Self from Montaigne to Suzuki Avram Alpert contends that scholars have yet to fully grasp the constitutive force of global connections in the making of modern selfhood Alpert argues that canonical moments of self making from around the world share a surprising origin in the colonial anthropology of Europeans in the Americas While most intellectual histories of modernity begin with the Cartesian inward turn Alpert shows how this turn itself was an evasion of the impact of the colonial encounter He charts a counter history of the modern self tracing lines of influence that stretch from Michel de Montaigne's encounter with the Tupi through the writings of Jean

Jacques Rousseau into German Idealism American Transcendentalism postcolonial critique and modern Zen Alpert considers an unusually wide range of thinkers including Kant Hegel Fanon Emerson Du Bois Senghor and Suzuki This book not only breaks with disciplinary conventions about period and geography but also argues that these conventions obscure our ability to understand the modern condition Alpert's scholarship is impressive offering a focused sweep of intellectual history and incisive readings of many important figures and the scholarly literature devoted to them He is a fantastic writer His prose is direct and evocative conveying complex ideas in clear and probing terms This style transforms a long text into a relatively quick and at times gripping read Jane Anna Gordon author of Creolizing Political Theory Reading Rousseau through Fanon Through textual and historical analyses and great interpretive abilities Alpert shows persuasively that Montaigne Rousseau Emerson Suzuki and others separately and together are thinkers not of a Western monopolizing the sense of modern tradition but of global pluralist thought His way of reading these thinkers can be a model for others interested in decolonizing and deracializing modern thought while preserving much of the canon with its present membership with its male Western European and Anglo American membership But Alpert has done more Through his arguments he has made room for Du Bois Fanon and Suzuki to be included in the canon This is intellectually progressive and politically significant and will make a fresh reading experience for many readers Peter K J Park author of Africa Asia and the History of Philosophy Racism in the Formation of the Philosophical Canon 1780-1830 The Power of Feminist Theory Amy Allen, 2025-06-17 In this new second edition of The Power of Feminist Theory Domination Resistance Solidarity Amy Allen diagnoses the inadequacies of previous feminist conceptions of power and draws on the work of a diverse group of theorists of power including Michel Foucault Judith Butler bell hooks and Hannah Arendt in order to construct a new feminist conception of power The conception of power developed in this book enables readers to theorize domination resistance and solidarity and perhaps more importantly to do so in a way that illuminates the interrelatedness of these three modalities of power The new edition of this foundational text includes substantial new material on intersectionality and power transnational feminism and power in relation to homonationalism and neo imperialism and empowerment feminism It addresses important criticisms of Foucault Arendt and Butler that have been raised by Black feminists critical philosophers of race postcolonial theorists and Marxists The Power of Feminist Theory Domination Resistance Solidarity is an essential text for students engaging with feminist analyses of power feminist theory and feminist political thought Refashioning Futures David Scott, 1999-01-01

Critique of Political Decolonization Bernard Forjwuor, 2023 Using the Ghanaian experience as a rich case study Forjwuor rethinks what colonialism and decolonization mean and offers new methodological theoretical and conceptual approaches to engaging the questions of colonialism political independence political decolonization justice and freedom Islamic Law on Trial Sohaira Z. M. Siddiqui, Sohaira Zahid Siddiqui, 2025 Prior to the East India Company's arrival in India in 1661 Islamic law was widely applied in India by the Mughal Empire As the Company's power grew it quickly established a court system intended to limit Islamic law Following the Great Rebellion of 1857 the project of jural colonization replaced the decentralized Islamic legal system with a new standardized system Islamic Law on Trial interrogates the project of juridical colonization and demonstrates that alongside and despite the violent displacement of Muslim legal sovereignty Muslims were able to engage with and even champion Islamic law from inside the colonial judiciary The outcome of their work was a paradoxical legal terrain that appeared legitimate both to Muslim practitioners and English colonizers Through this story of courtroom contestations Sohaira Siddiqui challenges long standing assumptions about Islamic law under British rule the ways in which colonial power displaced pre existing traditions and how local elites navigated the new institutions imposed upon them

Medicine, Race and Liberalism in British Bengal Ishita Pande, 2009-12-04 This book focuses on the entwinement of politics and medicine and power and knowledge in India during the age of empire Using the powerful metaphor of pathology the science of the origin nature and course of diseases the author develops and challenges a burgeoning literature on colonial medicine moving beyond discussions of state medicine and the control of epidemics to everyday life to show how medicine was a fundamental ideology of empire Related to this point and engaging with postcolonial histories of biopower and modernity the book highlights the use of this racially grounded medicine in the formulation of modern selves and subjectivities in late colonial India In tracing the cultural determinants of biological race theory and contextualizing the understanding of race as pathology the book demonstrates how racialism was compatible with the ideologies and policies of imperial liberalism Medicine Race and Liberalism in British Bengal brings together the study of modern South Asia race theory colonialism and empire and the history of medicine It highlights the powerful role played by the idea of pathology in the rationalization of imperial liberalism and the subsequent projects of modernity embraced by native experts in Bengal in the long nineteenth century

Transdisziplinäre Governanceforschung Sybille De La Rosa, Ulrike Höppner, Matthias Köttler, 2008 Envisioning Caribbean Futures Brian Meeks, 2007 Employing critical analysis of Caribbean intellectual thought and of the postcolonial political economy Brian Meeks sets about proposing a manifesto for the future What emerges is a programme for the medium term which is pragmatic in its efforts to deal with the current crisis without engaging in the romanticism of an all encompassing revolutionary transformation Meeks suggests a form of participatory reorganization without necessarily dismantling the fundamentals of formal democratic organization Particular emphasis is placed on rural agro producers because their empowerment politically and economically resolves the problem of elite domination while creating the conditions for economic democracy He argues finally that the proposals can become the basis for a more fundamental social and intellectual transformation from following Sylvia Wynter man to human based on democracy community and solidarity Die Entwicklung von Sicherheit Jan Pospisil, 2009 Seit den 1990er Jahren durchl uft Entwicklungspolitik eine Wandlung Die Frage bewaffneter Konflikte und Kriege in den Peripherien hat Nachhaltigkeit als neue und zentrale Problemstellung abgel st Dieser Prozess verl uft nicht bei allen Akteuren gleich

Vielmehr werden spezifische Rationalitäten von Steuerung sichtbar die sich mit dem Foucault'schen Begriff der Gouvernementalität fassen lassen In einem Vergleich der entwicklungspolitischen Praxis der USA und Deutschlands arbeitet diese Studie die Unterschiedlichkeiten der Konzepte und institutionellen Ausrichtungen heraus und analysiert deren Implementierung in Sri Lanka Zeitschrift für Volkskunde, 2004 Transition, 1999 JCT., 1991* For the City Yet to Come AbdouMalik Simone, 2004-10-07 A study of how colonial and postcolonial legacies manifest in African cities and African urban planning Decolonizing the Academy Carole Boyce Davies, Meredith Gadsby, Charles F. Peterson, Henrietta Williams, 2003 Bomb, 2004 Conscripts of Modernity David Scott, 2004-12-03 Uses C L R James's The Black Jacobins as a jumping off point for a reconsideration of colonial and postcolonial concepts of history politics and agency

Mobilizing India Tejaswini Niranjana, 2006-10-12 An innovative analysis of how ideas of Indian identity negotiated within the Indian diaspora in Trinidad affect cultural identities back home in India Decentring Empire Durba Ghosh, Dane Keith Kennedy, 2006 This volume charts a new direction in the study of British imperialism its impact on India and other colonial territories and its influence in propelling the forces of globalisation Moving beyond the standard model of a bilateral circuit between imperial centre and colonial periphery it highlights instead the web of transcolonial and transnational networks that spread across and beyond the empire operating both on its behalf and against its interests It suggests that these networks worked in effect to decentre empire shaping the multidimensional contours of the global modernity we contend with today Decentring Empire brings together thirteen original essays by some of the leading scholars of British imperialism their contributions offered in honour of Thomas R Metcalf the distinguished historian of colonial India The essays range widely in scope moving in time from the mid eighteenth to the mid twentieth century in space from India to Ireland and Australia and elsewhere across the imperial map and in topic from economic political and social to medical legal and cultural concerns Taken together they demonstrate the analytical richness of current scholarship on British colonialism in India and elsewhere and give fresh insights into its role in the making of the modern world This is history at the cutting edge an important contribution to the ongoing debate about empire and its consequences
