Reflecting On Research Practice Issues In Health And Social Welfare:

Reflecting on Research Practice Pam Shakespeare, Dorothy Atkinson, Sally French, 1993 Charts some of the hidden from view aspects of social research and explores many of the complex processes involved The chapters range from developing ideas and negotiating with funders to building research relationships and disseminating findings Observation and Its Application to Social Work Pat Le Riche, Karen Tanner, 1998 Karen Tanner and Pat Le Riche have brought together a range of contributions from practitioners and social work academics in order to discuss the application of ideas about observation to social work education and practice The authors focus on how observation can be used to counteract oppressive and dehumanising practices Children's Reflections On Family Life Michele Moore, 2012-11-12 How important is the family for children How do children cope when parents have to juggle child care employment and other responsibilities In this volume these questions and others are raised and reflected upon by children themselves providing insights for parents and professionals Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry Nona Lyons, 2010-04-07 Philosophers have warned of the perils of a life spent without reflection but what constitutes reflective inquiry and why it is necessary in our lives can be an elusive concept Synthesizing ideas from minds as diverse as John Dewey and Paulo Freire the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry presents reflective thought in its most vital aspects not as a fanciful or nostalgic exercise but as a powerful means of seeing familiar events anew encouraging critical thinking and crucial insight teaching and learning In its opening pages two seasoned educators Maxine Greene and Lee Shulman discuss reflective inquiry as a form of active attention Thoreau's wide awakeness an act of consciousness and a process by which people can understand themselves their work particularly in the form of life projects and others Building on this foundation the Handbook analyzes through the work of 40 internationally oriented authors Definitional issues concerning reflection what it is and is not Worldwide social and moral conditions contributing to the growing interest in reflective inquiry in professional education Reflection as promoted across professional educational domains including K 12 education teacher education occupational therapy and the law Methods of facilitating and scaffolding reflective engagement Current pedagogical and research practices in reflection Approaches to assessing reflective inquiry Educators across the professions as well as adult educators counselors and psychologists and curriculum developers concerned with adult learning will find the Handbook of Reflection and Reflective Inquiry an invaluable teaching tool for challenging times Disability and Child Sexual Abuse Martina Higgins, John Swain, 2009-11-15 Disability and Child Sexual Abuse examines the ways in which society marginalises institutionalises and places disabled children in situations of unacceptable risk and how as evidenced in the survivors narratives patterns of service delivery can contribute to the problem Revitalising Critical Reflection in Contemporary Social Work Research, Practice and Education Christian Franklin Svensson, Pia Ringø, 2022-12-09 Globally social work faces increasingly complex cultural political economic legal organisational technological and professional conditions Critically reflecting on the subject this book heightens critical consciousness among social work researchers educators practitioners and students about the structural dimensions of social problems and human suffering it highlights the inter relationship between agency and structure and discusses strategies to challenge and change both individual and societal consciousness Offering the reader an opportunity to gain in depth understanding of how critical reflection is possible in contemporary social work research practice and education it will be required reading for all social work scholars students and professionals

The Routledge International Handbook of Social Work Teaching Jarosław Przeperski, Rajendra Baikady, 2024-04-09 This handbook is a comprehensive text on social work education based on the narratives of social work educators practitioners and researchers from Asia and the Pacific North and South America Australia and Oceania and Europe It discusses innovations challenges pedagogy and tested methods of social work teaching at various levels of educational programmes The volume Examines key concepts that underpin debates concerning social work teaching research and practice Brings out key concerns debates and narratives concerning various teaching learning and pedagogical methods from different countries Documents principal perspectives of different stakeholders involved in social work education from educators and practitioners to novice social workers The Routledge International Handbook of Social Work Teaching will be an effective instrument in informing policy decisions related to social work teaching and pedagogy at the global and local levels It will be essential for educators researchers and practitioners within social work institutions and for professional associations around the world

Fieldwork: Ethics and politics in fieldwork Christopher John Pole, 2005

Self-advocacy in the Lives of People with Learning Difficulties Dan Goodley, 2000 How do people with the label of learning difficulties challenge disabling environments What role can professionals play in supporting such challenges How do self advocacy groups contribute to disability politics and the development of theories of disability This timely book sets out to answer these questions for students teachers and practitioners working in the field It examines self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties The term learning difficulties is used to describe people who have been labelled at some point in their lives as requiring specialist mental handicap services Learning difficulties is preferred over other synonyms such as mental handicap mental impairment or learning disabilities because it is the term preferred by many in the self advocacy movement the focus of this book Hitherto a number of books have introduced and examined the notion of self advocacy This volume goes beyond these studies to offer an appraisal of self advocacy in the lives of people with learning difficulties that is grounded in their own experiences It redresses the dominant focus on learning difficulties as pathology or tragedy highlighting the ways in which people so labelled are fighting for their own human rights in a disabling society through their involvement in self advocacy groups It outlines a number of lessons for supporters policy makers professionals and service providers in relation to the resilience of self advocates with learning difficulties and gives examples of good practice

Educating Rita and Her Sisters National Institute of Adult Continuing Education, 1998 The 1990s have witnessed major changes in adult and continuing education and lifelong learning has become an increasing global concern for both legislators and educators This book focuses on the role of women learners and teachers researchers and managers within this context of challenge and change The keynote is one of reflective practice combining theoretical insight and debate with examples of experience and specific initiatives in different parts of England and Wales The book looks at the purpose of continuing education and what it might offer women What kind of learning takes place and where is that place Is there a curriculum for women What is distinctive about women researching in continuing education and what is their experience How visible are women in terms of publications and power What about the workers How far have equal opportunities gone in relation to full time and part time staff What is the significance of the fragmentation of the concept woman and the challenge to feminism from debates on essentialism race class and sexual identity What lessons can be learned by and from women education and for women if politicians policy makers and practitioners create a culture of earning opportunity recognising women s entitlement and valuing women s contribution
