The Christian Faith Michael

Horton, 2011-01-04 Theology the study of God is a concern for every believer not just theologians or those in ministry It's the goal of good theology to humble us before the triune God of majesty as we come to understand him better This is a book of and about good theology Award winning author theologian and professor Michael Horton wrote The Christian Faith as a book of systematic theology and doctrine that can be preached experienced and lived as well as understood clarified and articulated It's written for a growing cast of pilgrims in ministry and laity who are interested in learning about Christ as a way of living as a Christian Who understand that knowing doctrine and walking in practical Christianity are not competing interests The Christian Faith is divided into six parts five of which each focus on an aspect of God while the first part sets up an understanding and appreciation for the task of theology itself addressing topics like The source of theology where the idea of theology comes from and what its limits are The origin of the canon how the modern Bible came about and why we can trust it The character of theology is the nature of theology practical theoretical or can it be both In a manner equally as welcoming to professors pastors students and armchair theologians Horton has organized this volume in a readable fashion that includes a variety of learning features A brief synopsis of biblical passages that inform certain doctrines Surveys of past and current theologies with contemporary emphasis on exegetical philosophical practical and theological questions Substantial interaction with various Christian movements within the Protestant Catholic and Orthodoxy traditions as well as the hermeneutical issues raised by postmodernity Charts sidebars questions for discussion and an extensive bibliography divided into different entry levels and topics At the heart of this book is a deep love for and curiosity about God Its basic argument is that a personal relationship with God goes hand in hand with the pursuit of theology It isn't possible to know God without studying him

Grace Alone---Salvation as a Gift of God Carl R. Trueman, 2017-04-18 Grace is the heart of the Christian gospel It's a doctrine that touches the very depths of human existence and makes Christianity such an essential alternative to the dissolution and nihilism of modern culture Grace Alone guides you into a better doctrinal understanding of the issue and gives you a more glorious vision of an active and saving God The language of grace fills the Bible so much that to say grace alone may not evoke much reflection Unlike faith alone there is no theological controversy among expressions of Christianity Reviving one of the five great declarations of the Reformation and one of the more overlooked sola Gratia professor and church historian Carl Trueman Provides a thorough definition of grace as it is found in the Bible and an overview of biblical references to and teaching on grace Tracks the doctrine of grace as it has been articulated throughout church history with discussions of Augustine Pelagius Thomas Aquinas and ending with the Reformation and theologies of Luther and Calvin Looks at the relationship between the means of grace and the modern church defining the practical implications of the Reformation's understanding of grace Explanations throughout on the relationship of grace to sin salvation and glorification God's sovereignty the sacraments and the controversies regarding freewill and predestination Grace Alone is a beautiful and much needed revival of this foundational doctrine and the assurance of salvation THE FIVE SOLAS Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God's glory The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches
