

4. Pharaoh's Body

When Musa was made a prophet by Allah, he told the reigning king Pharaoh or Fir'awn to acknowledge God's truth, but Pharaoh refused. Finally, Pharaoh and his army were drowned in the raging sea. Of this event, the Quran says: "This day We will save your body, so that you will become a sign for your successors." (Surah Yunus 10:92) A surprising prediction because when the Quran was revealed in the seventh century A.D., no one knew about Pharaoh's body. In 1898, the 3000 year old mummified remains of Pharaoh were discovered in the ancient city of Thebes thus proving the Quran's accuracy.

5. The People of Saba

Saba was an ancient country made fertile by the Marib dam which was very advanced for the times. The Sabeans were prosperous families of traders. But instead of being thankful to Allah and worshipping Him, they denied Him. Allah then sent a flood which destroyed the Marib dam and ruined their fields and orchards. Now only bitter fruits, tamarisks and a few lote trees grew there. The ruins of the Marib dam and some other monuments still exist in Yemen about 120 km to the east of San'a. (Surah Saba 34:15-17)

6. A Barrier between two Seas

In the 19th and 20th ayah of Surah al-Rahman, the Quran says: "He has let free the two bodies of flowing water, meeting together: between them is a Barrier which they do not transgress." Modern science has discovered the truth of this Quranic statement. When the Mediterranean Sea waters meet the Atlantic Sea waters in the Gibraltar Straits, they do not mingle with each other but maintain the differences of their own qualities, such as salinity, density and temperature.
