practical wants of the European student At the best a grammar is regarded by an European as a necessary evil only to be tolerated because unavoidable Especially must it be so in the case of a language confessedly more copious more elaborate and artificial than any other language of the world living or dead The structure of such a language must of necessity be highly complex To the native of Hindustan this complexity is a positive recommendation He views in it an evidence and a pledge of the sacred and unapproachable character of the tongue which he venerates as divine About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
